Whitehall, June 30.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, has been presented to the King by Richard Glover, Esq; One of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, actuated by a zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection towards your Majesty's Royal Person, and to return your Majesty our sincere Acknowledgements for the Measure which your Majesty has thought proper to adopt to guard against and counteract the Effects of wicked and seditious Publications.

We have observed, with Concern and Indignation, the Prevalence of seditious Writings, and the Attempt of a few evil-minded Persons to excite Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will cheerfully exert ourselves to the utmost, as Magistrates and in our several Stations, to discourage and suppress, by every legal Measure in our Power, all Attempts that may be made to disturb the Peace and Order of Society, or to diminish the Blessings of our happy Constitution in Church and State.

Whitehall, June 30.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerset, assembled by public Advertisement, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to testify their grateful Acknowledgements of the unremitting Care and Attention you have invariably bestowed, to preserve to them, unimpaired, a Constitution, which, whilst it possesses the Admiration, excites the Envy of surrounding Nations. Impressed, Sire, with these Sentiments, they cannot see, but with the deepest Regret, any Attempts made to shake the public Confidence in that glorious Fabric which the Wisdom and Virtue of their Ancestors have transmitted to them.

When wild and seditious Tenets and Opinions, under specious Pretences, are obtruded on their Consideration, the mild and equitable Distribution of Justice, by which their Civil and Religious Liberties are secured, will be endangered, if not totally destroyed.

But, to that reasonable Endeavour, to awaken us to a just Sense of our Situation, (which your Majesty jefty's watchful Anxiety for the Welfare of your People has produced) we look up with Confidence for Support, and for a Continuance of the perfect Enjoyment of the Blessings of real constitutional Liberty.

May you, Sire, long receive the Effects of our Gratitude, in a due and proper Subjection to the Law, a peaceable and friendly Demeanour towards each other, and the most sincere and dutiful Loyalty to your Throne.

By Order, and on Behalf of the Meeting,

Tho. S. Jolliffe, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Town Clerk, Comburgesses and Burgesses, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough and Soke of Grantham in the County of Lincoln.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Town Clerk, Comburgesses and Burgesses, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough and Soke of Grantham in the County of Lincoln, beg Leave to return our most grateful Acknowledgements for your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Tranquillity of this Kingdom, manifested by your late wise and reasonable Proclamation against seditious Publications.

We do most earnestly assure your Majesty of our zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and to the Government and Constitution of this Kingdom as by Law established, the Sources of that Freedom and Prosperity which your Majesty's Subjects enjoy under your mild and most auspicious Reign.

Impressed with these Sentiments, your Majesty may depend upon our utmost Exertions to give Effect to your Majesty's Proclamation, and to defeat the Attempts of those who would create Discontent and Disaffection in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, to the Disturbance of the Tranquillity and the Interruption of the Prosperity of a free and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Lanark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Lanark, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the Sentiments of Subjects who are loyal to your Family and Government, and sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under the Constitution of their Country.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we feel ourselves particularly called upon at this Moment to express our Abhorrence of those seditious and inflammatory Writings, which Disaffection has industriously disseminated, and are the just Object of your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, and to join the respectable Part of our Fellow Citizens, who are eager to avow their unqualified Approbation of the temperate Wisdom and Firmness that have dictated it.

Our happy Constitution we desire to regard with a partial Affection and a becoming Reverence; and while we rejoice that, in that Constitution, ample Powers are vested for its own Melioration, we reflect, with Pride, that by a steady Adherence to the Principles established at the Revolution, our Country has attained a Pitch of Dignity, of Wealth, and of political Happiness, that are the Envy of the World, and of which we shall in vain search for an Example in the Page of History.

In our several Capacities, as Magistrates or as Individuals, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our Care, in conformance to your Royal Proclamation, sedulously to watch over the Public Peace, convinced that a Love of Order and a Respect for the Laws are the best Earnest of the Public Prosperity.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, this 23d Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, having most seriously considered your Majesty's Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of many wicked and seditious Writings, that have been lately most industriously dispersed, tending, by an ostentatious Display of delusive and impracticable Theories, to subvert all Order and good Government, and to substitute in their Room nothing but Anarchy and Confusion, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our grateful Acknowledgements for this fresh Instance of your Majesty's paternal Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People. Assured that the Freedom of our Persons, the Security of our Property, and the general Prosperity of the Empire, are intimately connected with the Continuance of the present Form of Government, we look on every Attempt to vilify that Form as highly criminal, and every Innovation on it as extremely dangerous to the dearest and most important Interests of our Country.

We are convinced that no efficient Government can subsist without certain Gradations of Property and Condition, and that those Gradations support and are mutually supported by our mixed Form of Legislature, the Source of our Happiness as Individuals, and of our Strength and Respectability as a People.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we solemnly pledge ourselves to act in strict Conformity with the gracious Intentions of your Majesty, communicated to us in the late Proclamation, and to discountenance and and suppress, to the utmost of our Power, every Attempt, whether direct or indirect, to subvert the established Constitution of these Kingdoms, or any Way disturb the Public Tranquillity, so eminently promoted by your Majesty's auspicious Government.

[ Transmitted by Earl Porcett, Recorder of that Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bromsgrove in the County of Worcester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Bromsgrove, impressed with the deepest Gratitude for the Happiness we have enjoyed under your auspicious Government, wish to make our Acknowledgements, and to declare our firm Attachment to your Royal Person. We are most gratefully sensible, as of the unceasing Attention you have ever shown towards us, so likewise of the late great Instance of it, your Majesty's most gracious Proclamation respecting the late numerous Publications, tending to excite Sedition in this Realm. We are fully convinced that a Submission to the Laws of a Country is the only Way to give Energy to its Government. Our's are so mild and happily tempered, that in wishing them every Degree of Strength, we know full well that we are desiring our own Happiness, and that of all your Majesty's Subjects. We view, with infinite Pleasure, the flourishing State at which, under your benign Influence, we are arrived. We abhor and detest those seditious Writings, which can have no other Tendency than to disturb that Peace and Prosperity we so amply possess. Our happy Constitution is most justly dear to us, and we give the most ardent Thanks to your Majesty for your tender Solicitude for its Preservation, which we shall ever repay by a most firm and affectionate Attachment to your Sacred Person and to your Royal House.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, with all Humility beg Leave to lay before your Throne the strongest Assurance of a loyal and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; an Attachment which hath been ever alive in our Hearts, which Time and Experience have confirmed in us, and which we deem it at this Time more especially our Duty to express and declare.

We cannot, without the utmost Concern and Abhorrence, observe the Endeavours used to loosen the Obligations of Obedience, and to raise Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, by seditious Publications industriously dispersed, and pressed upon their Attention; and by every Method of propagating Doctrines and Opinions tending to subvert the Laws and Government of this Country. With grateful Hearts we offer the humble Tribute of our Thanks to your Majesty for your paternal Care and Concern for the Welfare of your People, instanced anew in the Measures taken to check these daring Attempts; and to prevent in Time what might otherwise have been the evil Consequences of them.

We consider it no less our Interest than our Duty, both to obey and to enforce the Proclamation which your Majesty hath caused to be published, and the Wisdom of Parliament approved: And we are happy in the Conviction that such are the Principles and Resolution of the Generality of your People. We glory in the Name and Privileges of Englishmen; and we resolve to do our utmost to support and continue down to our Children that invaluable incomparable Constitution, both in Church and State, which is the Admiration of other Countries, and the Glory of our own: A Constitution under which we have full Enjoyment of true Liberty, both Civil and Religious, are flourishing and powerful, happy in ourselves and respected by our Neighbours, prized as Friends and feared as Enemies.

May the Great and Almighty Director of all Things preserve this most excellent Constitution to us and our Posterity to the End of Time; and may your Majesty long, very long, be the providential Instrument of its Protection and Continuance to a grateful, loyal and free People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our grateful Thanks and sincere Acknowledgments for the unremitting Care and constant Affection with which your Majesty is pleased to watch over the Interest and Welfare of this Realm; and, in particular, for your Majesty's gracious and well-timed Proclamation relative to divers wicked and seditious Writings, which have been of late printed, published, and industriously dispersed throughout this Kingdom.

Impressed with the strongest Sentiments of Veneration for our inimitable Constitution, as settled at the Glorious Revolution; animated with the most zealous and ardent Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family; sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we will ever be ready to step forth and declare our Abhorrence and Derestation of all seditious Practices, and of the Authors and Publishers of all inflammatory Writings.

Prompted by Inclination, as well as the Knowledge of it's being our Duty, we are determined to exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Abilities, in maintaining Peace and good Order in this County; in suppressing and preventing all Riots and Tumults; and in bringing to Punishment all Persons who may guard attempt to disturb the Quiet of our Neighbourhood, if any such should dare to appear amongst us.

That it may please Almighty God long to preserve your Majesty to be the Father and Happiness of a loyal and contented People, is our most sincere Wish and fervent Prayer.

AT a Time when the Government of the Kingdom is declared to be dangerous, from the Machinations of seditious Men, we the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Principal Burgeses, Assistants, Freeholders, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, beg Leave to approach the Throne with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection towards your Royal Person, and to return your Majesty our most sincere and cordial Acknowledgements for the Measures which your Majesty has thought proper to adopt, in order to guard against and counteract the Effects of the late seditious Publications, which have been industriously dispersed throughout the Kingdom. We deprecate every Innovation on the established Laws of our excellent and invaluable Constitution in Church and State, and will cheerfully exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Power, to discourage and suppress every Attempt which may be made against the Public Peace and Order of Society.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landed Proprietors of the County of Renfrew, beg Leave to approach the Throne with every Sentiment of Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for the Proclamation you have been graciously pleased to issue, for the Suppression of certain wicked and seditious Writings, lately printed and dispersed in this Kingdom, tending to excite Tumults and Disorders, and to raise Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

Fully convinced of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we behold with Abhorrence every Attempt to vilify and subvert our present happy Constitution, and are determined to exert ourselves, in the most effectual Manner in our Power, to preserve the Peace and good Order of Society, and to check and repress all wicked and malicious Attempts to interrupt the Security and Happiness of our Fellow Subjects, which must invariably depend on a zealous Attachment to the established Government, and a due Submission to the Laws of the Country.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy and united People, and that the Constitution, in Church and State, may be transmitted unimpaired to the latest Posterity, is our most earnest Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Tain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Tain, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your mild, just and happy Government.

Impressed with the highest Veneration for our glorious Constitution, it is with the utmost Satisfaction we observe that your Majesty has been graciously pleased to issue your Royal Proclamation to preserve that ancient Mode of Government sacred from the Attempts of designing and ill-minded Men.

In our several Capacities of Magistrates, and of Citizens your Majesty may rely on our strictest Attention to the Recommendations contained in your Royal Proclamation, and we trust, Loyalty to your Majesty, Subordination to the Laws, and a proper Sense of the Benefits resulting from our Civil and Religious Liberties, are too deeply instilled in the Minds and Manners of the People to be frustrated by seditious Publications of some few Individuals.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that the present Constitution may continue, unimpaired, the Admiration of future as of past Ages, is the sincere Wish of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Ayr, convened at Ayr this Day, for the Purpose of taking under our most serious Consideration your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation, warning your Majesty's faithful and loving Subjects against those seditious Writings, which have been published and industriously dispersed, aiming at the Subversion of all regular Government, and tending to excite groundless Jealousies and Discontents respecting the Laws and happy Constitution of this Kingdom, exhorting them at the same Time to avoid and discourage all Proceedings tending to produce Riots and Tumults. With Hearts full of Gratitude and Thanks for this seasonable Instance of your Majesty's paternal Benevolence and wise Prevention, most humbly beg Leave to assure your your Majesty that we will, to the utmost of our Power, collectively and individually, attend to the necessary and salutary Requisitions contained in your Majesty's most gracious Proclamation.

Permit us also, Sire, to renew our Professions of unshaken and inviolable Attachment to our present glorious and happy Constitution, established at the Revolution, and gradually improved to the present Hour; not by the dangerous Hands of Political Em-pyrics, not by factious or designing Reformists, but by the temperate Wisdom and cool Reflection of the Constituent Powers of the Legislature.

Whilst we would deprecate, most Gracious Sovereign, at all Times, any great or sudden Innovation on a Constitution, under which the Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty are more completely secured and enjoyed than under any Form of Government hitherto known in the World, we would most ardently desire to express our united, firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, our constitutional Monarch, under whose benign Government we experience those Blessings, and a State of unexampled Prosperity, which we devoutly hope shall be long continued to us, under your Majesty's mild and patriotic Influence, and be transmitted to our Descendants under future Sovereigns of your Majesty's August House.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Commonalty, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventry in the County of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses, Commonalty, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventry, most humbly supplicate your Majesty to accept our grateful Acknowledgments for the paternal Solitude and Care which your Majesty has been most graciously pleased to express for the Peace and Happiness of your People in your late Royal Proclamation against the Publication and Dispersion of wicked and seditious Writings.

We are deeply sensible of the very high and exalted Rank we bear amongst the Kingdoms of the World, and that, under the Blessing of God and the Reign of a most virtuous King, we are the most favoured and happy Nation upon Earth.

We are also conscious of the Excellence of our own Constitution, and anxious for it's Permanency; we cannot, therefore, without just Indignation, behold the dangerous and criminal Spirit of those who labour to disturb the Public Tranquillity, and, under the specious Pretence of Reformation, aim at Subversion and Confusion.

Duty, Allegiance, and a due Regard to the Security of our own Interests, unite in obliging us to concur in your Majesty's Views; and we solemnly engage ourselves, in our several Departments, to promote your Majesty's Designs to suppress Sedition, and perpetuate Fidelity to your Majesty's Person and Family, and to the Principles of the Constitution, both in Church and State, as established at the Glorious Revolution:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach the Throne with most sincere Assurance of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person, Family and Government; and of our high Veneration for the already established and happy Constitution of these Kingdoms.

Impressed with a grateful Sense of the inestimable Blessings we thus enjoy, it is with the utmost Satisfaction we observe, by your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, such paternal Attention paid to preserve our sacred Establishment from insidious and seditious Attempts to innovate or subvert a System of Government under which our Country has been so highly favoured for more than a Century past.

In Support of your Majesty's gracious Views, we beg Leave to declare, that it shall be our constant Endeavour, in our different Capacities, to inculcate a due Subordination to the Laws, to check all seditious Publications, and suppress all Riots, Tumults; and disorderly Meetings, which may be attempted to be raised within our Jurisdiction, upon any Pretext whatever.

That your Majesty may long reign over a happy People, blessed with the Company and Virtues of your Royal and amiable Consort; that your Children may inherit the Graces and Virtues which adorn their Parents; and that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales may, like your Majesty, persevere in Support of those Constitutional Principles which he has so openly and Prince-like avowed, is our most ardent Wish and sincere Prayer.
