THE following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, of the Archdeacon and Chapter, and of the Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff, humbly tender to your Majesty our strongest Assurances of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, of Attachment to your Family, of Zeal for the Principles of the Revolution, and of our utter Abhorrence of every Attempt to subvert the Constitution, in Church and State, then established, and since then improved.

The Improvements which the Constitution has received in the Judges being rendered more independent, in the Mode of determining contested Elections, in the Repeal of certain Penal Statutes respecting Protestant and Catholic Dissenters, in ascertaining the Rights of Juries, and in other Ways, have been more numerous and important during your Majesty's Reign than during the Reigns of all your Predecessors since the Revolution. We are thankful for what has been done, and without encouraging improper Modes of Innovation, in other Matters still perhaps requiring an Amendment, we trust that what is wanting, to render our Constitution perfect and permanent, will be accomplished by the deliberative Wisdom of the Legislature rather than by the rash Violence of democratic Faction.

When we compare our Situation, as Citizens of a free State, with that of those who are either struggling for that Liberty which we enjoy, or groaning under that Slavery which we are in no Danger of, we cannot but set the highest Value on that Form of Civil Government, from which our Happiness is derived; and we beg Leave, in the most sincere and solemn Manner, to declare to your Majesty, that in Proportion to this our Estimation of it's Worth, will be our Zeal for the Preservation of the Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Rochester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Rochester, impressed with a grateful Sense of your Majesty's Care and Attention to maintain and preserve inviolate all the Civil and Religious Rights and Privileges happily established in these Kingdoms at the Glorious Revolution, have nevertheless seen, with equal Abhorrence and Concern, the seditious Attempts of certain disaffected Persons to disturb the regular Order of Government; to counteract the pernicious Consequences whereof your Majesty, in your paternal Care and Wisdom, hath been pleased to issue your Royal Proclamation; which cannot but induce your Majesty's faithful Subjects to co-operate, in their several Situations, with your gracious En- cavours to preserve and uphold our free and well-constituted Government.

We, therefore, fully sensible of your Majesty's zealous and constant Attention to the Public Welfare; beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, as Ministers of the Gospel, it shall be our earnest Endeavour, as it is our bounden Duty, to infill into the Minds of those entrusted to our Care the true Principles of Religion, the Obedience and Subordination which that that enjoins, and a due Sense of Gratitude to Almighty God for the Prosperity which He permits us to enjoy, and, at the same Time, to call upon them to join with us in our sincere Prayers, that your Majesty may long continue to be the Guardian and Protector of a loyal, free, and contented People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, in the City of Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster, impressed with a most grateful Sense of your Majesty's ever watchful Care and Attention to maintain and preserve inviolate all the Religious and Civil Rights and Privileges happily established in these Kingdoms at the Glorious Revolution, have seen with equal Abhorrence and Concern, the malicious and daring Attempts of certain disloyal and disaffected Persons, to disturb the well-established Order of Government, by printing and industriously dispersing, throughout the Capital and other populous Parts of the Kingdom, and even through some of the public Schools and Seminaries, divers wicked and seditious Writings, the manifest Purpose whereof is the Alteration or Subversion of the present happy Form of Government both in Church and State: We therefore, in the public Station your Majesty has been graciously pleased to place us, being actuated by the purest Principles of Religion and Loyalty, do most gratefully acknowledge, and will most diligently obey and inculcate the very reasonable and wise Directions enjoined in your Royal Proclamation; humbly beseeching Almighty God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, that, after a long and prosperous Reign of your Majesty over a loyal and grateful People, there never may be wanting a Prince of your Royal House to continue the Blessings of the present Constitution to the latest Posterity.

Dated at our Chapter House at Westminster, under our Common Seal, the 18th of July, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

J. Rochester,
Dean of Westminster.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Pembroke.

S I R E,

DEEMPLY impressed with the Sense of your Majesty's unremitting Attention to the Happiness of your People, we beg Permission to approach your Throne with our Acknowledgements for the late Instance of your paternal Regard in your Majesty's gracious Proclamation.

Without assuming to determine on the Plans of Government to be adopted or rejected by other independent Communities, we avow, on a Conviction of its Excellence, our strong Attachment to our own peculiar Constitution in Church and State. We exult, Sire, in a System in which Strength and Permanence arise from mutual Dependency and Control; in which general Harmony results from Subordination of Parts; in which Difference of Condition supplies the Motive and the Reward of Industry and Merit; in which, in short, the Pyramid of Liberty, from a Base, extending over the whole State, ascends and narrows to a single Stone, which crowns and gives Integrity to the Building.

With these Sentiments, Sire, we regard with Contempt every Endeavour to shake the Steadiness of our Loyalty, as Citizens of Great Britain and Subjects of your Majesty's mild Government. Happy as we are, we are not disposed to hazard the Possession of certain in the Pursuit of visionary Happiness. We are not, Sire, to be tempted by the fallacious Glare of theoretic Perfection, from the solid Footing of Experience, into the trackless and dangerous Wilderness of Experiment.

We approach you then, Sire, with Hearts firmly attached to your Majesty and your illustrious House, and we unite our Voice with the general Suffrage of Britain in Favour of that particular Scheme of Government from which, as from their immediate Source, flow the numerous Blessings which we enjoy; Blessings of Order and Freedom, of National Affluence and Greatness.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen,
Common Council Men, Sheriff, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverfordwest, at the Guildhall assembled the 7th July, 1792, pursuant to public Notice.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, to express our sincere Acknowledgements for your gracious Proclamation, which breathes the true Spirit of Constitutional Liberty, and is so expressive of that paternal Attention which your Majesty has constantly shewn to the Peace and Happiness of your Subjects.

If we take a View of the surrounding Nations, and compare their several Situations with the flourishing State to which our own has happily arrived under the Auspices of your Majesty's mild and just Government, we cannot help lamenting that there are Men existing who have been so daring as to disperse factious and seditious Publications in this Kingdom, for no other Purpose than that of undermining the most perfect of all political Constitutions.

Thus circumstanced, and truly sensible that the Peace and Prosperity of all well-regulated Kingdoms depend, under Divine Providence, upon Obedience to the Laws and due Subordination among the various Orders of Men, it becomes our Duty, as well as Inclination, to assure your Majesty, that we will exert our utmost Endeavours to detect and prevent the evil Effects of open Violence and secret Machinations, that your Majesty may long continue to reign the happy Sovereign of an affectionate, grateful and free People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Peebles.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply

ply of the County of Peebles, venerating the Constitution of this Kingdom, and having a just Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy, and of the general Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty's Subjects under your mild and auspicious Reign, are met together to express our Detestation of those inflammatory and seditious Writings which of late have been published, under the false Colour of Reform, but with the wicked Design of disseminating Distrust, and creating Discontent in the Minds of your faithful Subjects against the Constitution and your Majesty's Government.

We beg Leave to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for your Royal Proclamation, so well calculated to discourage and prevent a Continuance of such malignant and wicked Practices; and we trust, under Divine Providence, that the Constitution as by Law established will, under your Majesty's paternal Care, and the paternal Care of your Royal Successors, long continue to secure to the People that National Happiness and Prosperity they now enjoy, and be an impregnable Bulwark against such wicked Designs as your Majesty's Royal Proclamation is intended to resist and defeat.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government; and it is our most earnest Wish and Prayer, that your Majesty may long live in Health to enjoy the Happiness naturally resulting from the Prosperity of the Kingdom, under your wise and benign Government; and that your Majesty may transmit to Posterity, unimpaired, our present Constitution, so deservedly admired by all Nations.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Peebles, the 30th Day of June, 1792 Years.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, the Bishop of the Diocese, the Members for the County and City of Hereford, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the said County.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly entreat your Majesty to permit us to express our Assurances of Fidelity and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and to thank your Majesty for your late Royal Proclamation, assuring you of our warmest and most grateful Sense of your constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of all your Subjects.

Sensible as we are of the many unexampled Blessings which we actually enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, and the happy Constitution established within these Realms, and from which those Blessings are derived, we feel with the highest Satisfaction and Confidence that every Attempt to subvert it will be totally counteracted and defeated, by the firm and united Loyalty to your Majesty, and a perfect Reliance on the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament, which is at this Time so prevalent in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects.

That the Constitution, which we so deservedly revere, be transmitted to the latest Posterity, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign in Peace over a free and united People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[ Transmitted by Richard Chambers, Esq; High Sheriff of the County. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wisbech, conscious of the Blessings we enjoy under the invaluable Constitution of these Kingdoms, and grateful for the just and equal Administration of your Majesty's Government, humbly beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's late most reasonable Proclamation.

We have beheld with Grief and Alarm the Attempts made by desperate and factious Men, under the specious Pretext of philosophical Discussion, to propagate a Theory utterly subversive of all Order and of the Principles of all Government.

Favoured by Providence with a King and Constitution deservedly Objects of our Love and Veneration, we are bound to honour the one by a due Submission to his Authority, and to preserve the other from speculative Innovation. And we humbly beg Permission to assure your Majesty, that, in our several Stations, we will discountenance and repress all Attempts which may be made to weaken and unsettle the Allegiance of our Fellow Subjects, whether by delusive Reasonings, or by the actual Violation of the Public Tranquillity.

[ Transmitted by John Mayer, Esq; Town Bailiff. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Fordoun, County of Kincardine, North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Fordoun, in Presbytery assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne, expressing our Concern to perceive the seditious Attempts of evil-minded and designing Men to spread abroad and sow in the Minds of your Majesty's loyal Subjects Principles which we consider as subversive of our happy Constitution, and tending to introduce Disorder and Confusion into these Kingdoms, which have flourished so much under the Influence of your Majesty's Government. Possessed of these Sentiments, we return your Majesty our sincere and united Thanks for your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation against seditious Pamphlets and Writings. Trusting that any Reformation which may be found necessary will be effectuated at a proper Season, and in a constitutional Manner, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will use our utmost Endeavours to repress a licentious Spirit, and to instil Principles of Loyalty and Subordination among the People under our Care. It is our earnest Prayer to Almighty God, that your Majesty may long sway the Sceptre over these Kingdoms, and that the Blessings of Liberty, Civil and Religious, may be transmitted, under your Majesty's illustrious Family, to the latest Posterity.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Presbytery, at Fordoun, this 11th Day of July, 1792.

David Forbes, Moderator.

[ Transmitted by the Rev. Mr. Forbes. ]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Borough of Wigtown, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your Royal Borough of Wigtown, in Common Council assembled, desire most humbly to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of extreme Satisfaction and Gratitude for the salutary Measure of the late Proclamation, which must check and disappoint the Wishes and Designs of a few turbulent and factious Men, Enemies to our wise Laws and happy Constitution.

In our humble Situation, we can assure your Majesty of the Continuance of our best Exertions to discountenance and suppress all seditious Sentiments and Opinions, sensible how much true Liberty and real Happiness the People enjoy under our much envied Constitution, and your Majesty's mild auspicious Government.

That your Majesty may long be preserved to reign over this Realm, and that all your Subjects may be sensible of the Equity of your Majesty's Government, and of the Necessity of Subordination to Law and Order, shall at all Times be our ardent Prayer.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Wigtown, the 12th Day of July, 1792 Years, by John Dun, Baillic.
[ Transmitted by the Earl of Galloway. ]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the General Convention of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioners assembled in Annual Convention, in virtue of the antient Statutes of this Kingdom, to deliberate on the Common Weal of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, conceive it to be our Duty, at this Time, to join the general Voice of the Nation in the warmest Expression of our Gratitude to your Majesty for that paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, which has uniformly distinguished your Majesty's Reign.

In a particular Manner we acknowledge, with a grateful Satisfaction, the Wisdom of those Measures recently adopted by your Majesty for the Preservation of the Peace of these Kingdoms, and the Maintenance of that due Subordination to Government and Obedience to the Laws, which can alone ensure the Continuance of the National Welfare and Prosperity.

Delegated as we are from every Quarter of this Kingdom, we have thus the most decided Means of ascertaining the Sentiments of the Nation at large, respecting their Political State; and it is with equal Confidence and Satisfaction that we can announce to your Majesty, that the great Body of your People in this Part of the united Kingdoms, are deeply sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and auspicious Government; that they revere the Constitution of their Country as established at the glorious Era of the Revolution; and that they reprobate, with proportional Indignation, every Attempt to diminish in the Minds of the People their Affection to that Constitution, or to inspire them with a Jealousy of that Government, which has no other Object than the Preservation of their Civil and Religious Rights, and the Maintenance of their Political Happiness.

It is with a proud Feeling of Exultation, Sire, that we perceive at this Moment, when other Nations are assailed by the Storms of Foreign War and of Civil Discord, that the Character of Great Britain stands high and respectable in the Scale of European States; that while improving her Commerce, and flourishing at Home in Arts, in Agriculture, and in Manufactures, her Military Operations Abroad have been attended with the most glorious and signal Success, and are at length happily terminated by a Peace, which is equally flattering to the Honour of the British Name as it is promotive of the solid and substantial Interests of the Empire.

In these Sentiments of true Patriotism, we rejoice in our actual Situation, we dread all rash and presumptuous Experiments of Innovation on the great Bulwark of our Liberties, and we limit our Wishes to the unimpaired Preservation and lasting Security of that glorious Fabric, the British Constitution, of which your Majesty is the faithful Guardian and Protector.

Esto perpetua.

Signed in our Presence and by our Appointment, at Edinburgh, the 12th Day of July, 1792.

James Stirling, Lord Provost, and Præses of the General Convention.

John Gray, Conjunct Clerk.

[ Transmitted by the Right Hon. the Lord Provost of the City of Edinburgh. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Stranraer, feel ourselves called upon, at a Period like this, to express in the strongest Manner our Zeal and Attachment to the Constitution, our Loyalty to our Sovereign, and our Gratitude for the paternal Care and Affection shown to his People by the late Royal Proclamation.

Impressed with a due Reverence for the Laws, and feeling the Blessings of Freedom and Security under a just and mild Government, it is with the utmost Satisfaction we observe that your Majesty is determined to preserve that Constitution, which alone can secure them to your People from the Attacks of designing and deluded Men.

In our several Capacities, as Magistrates and as Citizens, your Majesty may rest assured of our strict Attention

Attention to the Recommendations contained in your Royal Proclamation; and we trust Loyalty to your Majesty, Subordination to the Laws, and a proper Sense of the Benefits that result from our present Mode of Government, are too deeply rooted in the Minds of your Subjects to be shaken by the seditious Cabals of a few discontented Individuals.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that the British Constitution may remain unimpaired, the Admission of future as of past Ages. is our most fervent and earnest Prayer.

Signed and sealed, by the Appointment of the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Stranraer, the 9th of July, 1792.

Will. Leggat, Clerk.

[ Transmitted by the Earl of Stair. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN no Reign or Period of Civilization has the Nation been in greater Security or Credit, or at any Time more flourishing in Arts and Sciences, in Agriculture, in Manufactures and Merchandize, and the Protection of individual and general Property: Blessed in the free and conscious Exercise of religious Opinions, with the Enjoyment of present and the Prospect of a lasting Peace, no discerning, reasonable, or moderate Mind can therefore conceive what Cause there can be for murmuring; and yet it is to be lamented, that Complaints against so excellent a Constitution should insidiously arise in this Zenith of Political Wisdom and Security.

That such a Combination of superior Virtues and Discretions should be wantonly attacked, and the Legislature so audaciously libelled, when Ninety-nine out of every Hundred of your Majesty's People declare themselves not only content but happy, and are emulated, by the Protection and Freedom they experience, to an Ingenuity and Industry, in their respective Avocations and Professions, superior to all other Countries; the greatest Bane of Vice, and the Strength and Stability of every Civil Government.

Such, Sir, are the Sentiments of your Majesty's most faithful, grateful, and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Merchants, and numerous Manufacturers, the Inhabitants of Saddleworth, who most humbly and thankfully address your Majesty, to express their Sense of your Majesty's Goodness in issuing your most salutary and seasonable Proclamation, to set forth the Absurdity of the imaginary and fictitious Evils complained of by the few, invidious few, which will ever be found, but, we trust, never dreaded, in a Kingdom so wisely regulated as Great Britain; and we promise your Majesty most cheerfully to obey every Suggestion contained in your Majesty's most gracious Proclamation.

[ Transmitted by the Rev. Mr. Seddon, Chairman. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergymen and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Impressed with Gratitude for your Majesty's great Care and Attention to preserve our present happy and unrivalled Constitution, we humbly desire Permission to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for the seasonable and gracious Proclamation your Majesty has been pleased to issue, and which we regard as an additional Proof of your Majesty's paternal Affection towards your People.

Convinced that the Form of the British Government is the best calculated to promote and preserve the Happiness of a Nation that human Wisdom can devise, we behold, with Detestation and Abhorrence, the late seditious Writings which the Demagogues of Faction have propagated with such malicious but (we trust) ineffectual Industry.

And rejoicing in, and experiencing under your Majesty's Reign, the blessed Effects of our much-admired Constitution, we are determined to oppose every insidious Attempt to undermine the Foundation of that Security, Liberty and Prosperity, which we, with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, so eminently enjoy; and we pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and happy over a loyal and free People.

Abr. Balme,

Chairman of the said Meeting.

[ Transmitted by Abraham Balme, Esq; ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Royal Borough of Banff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Banff, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most grateful Acknowledgements for the paternal Care your Majesty has so lately shewn for the Happiness of your People, by your late Royal Proclamation.

Being convinced of the dangerous Effects of seditious Publications, which tend to inflame and unsettle the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and alienate them from our present happy Constitution, we cannot but heartily express our Detestation of such Principles, and assure your Majesty, that our strictest Attention shall be to the Recommendations contained in your Proclamation, by suppressing seditious Writings, and to support, to the utmost of our Power, the Laws and Constitution of Government established in Great Britain.

We congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Success that has attended your Arms in the Eastern World, under a Commander of the most distinguished Character and tried Courage; and by whose Wisdom a Peace has been concluded in that Quarter of the Globe, honorable to your Majesty, the British Nation and himself.

Signed in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Banff, in Council convened, at Banff, the 9th of July, 1792, by
