

Firmly attached as we are to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to our present happy Constitution, your Majesty may rely on our best Exertions to suppress all Publications and Attempts against the Peace and good Order of Society, and to secure our own Happiness, and the Welfare of Posterity, by transmitting to them, inviolate and unimpaired, a Constitution, which we consider as our brightest Glory, and their best Inheritance.

Ed. Lloyd, Sheriff.

[ Transmitted by Robert Williams, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Heretors of the County of Cromarty, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to assure your Majesty that we are most warmly attached to your Person and Family, and to the Government and Constitution of this Kingdom. We observe with Regret that divers seditious Writings have been published by evil-minded People, in order to raise groundless Jealousies in the Minds of your faithful Subjects against our present happy Constitution. And it is with the utmost Satisfaction we observe, by your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation, that you are determined to preserve our Constitution from the Attacks of designing and deluded Men.

In our several Capacities, your Majesty may be assured of our strict Attention to the Recommendation contained in your Royal Proclamation.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that our Constitution may continue to be the Admiration of future, as it has been of past Ages, is our most ardent Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Cromarty, July 11, 1792.

K. Mackenzie, Præses.

[ Transmitted by Duncan Davidson, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden by Adjournment at Spillsby, for the Division of Lindsey, in the County of Lincoln, think it our indispensable Duty at this Season to express our grateful and unfeigned Acknowledgments for the recent Proof of your Majesty's unceasing Attention to the Welfare of your People, by issuing a wise and seasonable Proclamation to check and suppress seditious Publications, and to avert the Mischiefs of Civil Tumult and Commotion.

Sensible of the Excellence of the British Constitution, and enjoying under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government every Blessing of Civil and Religious Liberty, we view, with the most serious Alarm, every Attempt to deprive us of those inestimable Advantages; we feel it the Duty of every good Citizen to exert himself upon an Occasion so momentous; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall, as Magistrates, use every Endeavor, within the District for which we act, to promote your Majesty's gracious Intentions, and to give Efficacy to the Royal Proclamation.

By the Court,

Tho. Coltman, Chairman.

[ Transmitted by Thomas Coltman, Esq; ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Capital Burgesies, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, in the County of Somerset, impressed with Sentiments of the purest Loyalty and Affection towards your Majesty, beg Leave to offer our sincere and grateful Thanks for your Majesty's Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People in issuing your late Royal Proclamation for the suppressing seditious Writings, published and industriously circulated, with a View to weaken, in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, the Sentiments of Submission to the Laws, and Attachment to the Government, Civil and Religious, so happily established, and so purely preserved, by the discerning Wisdom and Care of your Majesty and your illustrious Ancestors.

We further beg Leave to express to your Majesty our zealous Attachment to the present Form of our admired Constitution, to which (under Divine Favor) we are indebted for the unexampled Prosperity and real Liberty enjoyed by your Majesty's Subjects, and which happy Experience have taught us can only exist under the Protection of Law and the Authority of a well-regulated Government.

Impressed with these Opinions, we think it our Duty, and it is our firm Determination, to support your Majesty's well-timed Resolution, and counteract every Measure that may be used to subvert the Peace and good Order of our Country, by those who mistake Licentiousness for Freedom, and Anarchy for the Rights of Man.

That your Majesty may long, very long, enjoy the Blessing of Health, and continue to reign over a free, united, and loyal People, is, and ever shall be, our most earnest Wish and Prayer.

[ Transmitted by Sir Alexander Hood. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Hamilton, met at Hamilton the 17th Day of July, 1792.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Hamilton, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude for the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under the benign Influence of your Majesty's just and auspicious Government.

Actuated by an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and with a sacred Veneration for the Excellence of our present Constitution, we humbly entreat your Majesty to accept of our most grateful Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation, which conveys to us a fresh Proof of your Majesty's constant Solicitude for the Tranquillity and Happiness of your People.

We reprobate with one Voice those seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences which have justly excited your Majesty's Displeasure, which are subversive of all proper Subordination and good Government, and which, unless counteracted, might be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences to your Majesty's peaceable and dutiful Subjects.

And while we thus testify our Abhorrence of such Measures we at the same Time beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as in Gratitude and Duty bound, so it will be our constant Endeavour to instil into the Minds of those with whom we are connected, together with the Fear and Love of God, Sentiments of

Loyalty