

Attempt whatever can lessen our Reverence and Love for the Constitution of this Country, or our affectionate Loyalty to your Royal Person.

[Transmitted by Edward Thomas Gould, Esq; High Sheriff, and the Right Hon. Lord Edward Charles Cavendish Bentinck and Charles Meadows Pierrepont, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, met in a General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Murray.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne in order to express with Gratitude our Thanks for the Care and Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your faithful People, manifested upon all Occasions, and by your gracious Proclamation.

Highly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under our present Constitution, we look with Indignation upon those who would excite a Spirit of Sedition and Licentiousness, by holding forth to your Majesty's Subjects inflammatory Representations of Grievances which do not exist.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that it is our steadfast Resolution to use every Endeavour to maintain the Authority of Government in its full Force, and to promote that Spirit of good Order and Tranquillity which is so necessary among all Ranks of Men for preserving unimpaired that Constitution which renders us the Envy of surrounding Nations.

We also gladly embrace this Opportunity of heartily congratulating your Majesty, upon the Success of your Royal Arms in the East Indies, by which we have the strongest Hopes that the Trade and Prosperity of this Kingdom will be greatly advanced, and its Peace permanently secured.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People is our sincere Prayer.

Signed by our Preses, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Elgin, the 18th Day of July, 1792.

Fife, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bury St. Edmund's, think it a Duty incumbent on us to return our unfeigned Thanks for the late Proclamation, and to express our Regret that the Attempts of inconsiderate and seditious Men should have called forth the Royal Interposition.

We take this Opportunity to repeat our abundant Satisfaction with the Constitution of this Kingdom as settled the glorious Revolution; and when we reflect on the many Circumstances of National Happiness which distinguish the present Moment, we cannot but indulge the Voice of Gratitude: That the Judges of the Land are independent: That the Functions of Juries are liberally and clearly ascertained: That the Commerce of the Nation is extending: That the Resources of the Empire are increasing: That our National Character and Credit stand high amongst Foreign Powers; and that there is perfect Peace throughout your Majesty's Dominions both at Home and Abroad: Circumstances that perhaps never before met to bless and aggrandize any People, and which we cannot contemplate without venerating the Constitution that has raised us to this enviable Situation.

We pray Almighty God to bless your Majesty with Length of Days and all Happiness; and that we and all your Subjects may appreciate, as we ought, the many Advantages which we derive from your just Government.

Dated the 23d Day of July, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

[Transmitted by Lord Charles Fitz Roy.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Kirton for the Division of Lindsey, in the County of Lincoln, think it our indispensable Duty at this Season to express our grateful and unfeigned Acknowledgments for the recent Proof of your Majesty's unceasing Attention to the Welfare of your People, by issuing a wise and seasonable Proclamation to check and suppress seditious Publications, and to avert the Mischiefs of Civil Tumult and Commotion.

Sensible of the Excellence of the British Constitution, and enjoying under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government every Blessing of Civil and Religious Liberty, we view, with the most serious Alarm, every Attempt to deprive us of those inestimable Advantages; we feel it the Duty of every good Citizen to exert himself upon an Occasion so momentous; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall, as Magistrates, use every Endeavor, within the District for which we act, to promote your Majesty's gracious Intentions, and to give Efficacy to the Royal Proclamation.

By the Court,

Rich. Ellifson, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Rich. Ellifson, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Bewdley, in Common Council assembled, in grateful Acknowledgment of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to the Happiness and Welfare of your People, most sincerely thank your Majesty for your late gracious Proclamation for suppressing those seditious Publications, which have been lately circulated throughout this Kingdom for the Purpose of disseminating Discontent and Dissatisfaction, of subverting our most excellent Form of Government, and of exciting Tumults and Disorder in this flourishing and happy Country.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under that Government as established at the Revolution, and which has been strengthened and confirmed by the many Acts passed in your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will do every Thing in our Power, as Magistrates and good Subjects, to support and preserve our Constitution, the Pride and Glory of Britons and the Envy of other Nations, from every Attempt
