The humble Address of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, in the County of York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most affectionate and dutiful Subjects, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, fully sensible of the many Blessings we have long enjoyed under the most excellent Form of our present Constitution, both in Church and State, cannot but lament whenever it is liable to suffer any Interruption from an ill-directed or misguided Zeal. We should feel ourselves wanting in Duty to your Majesty, and to ourselves as good Citizens, if we did not stand forward with others of your loyal Subjects to express our highest Approbation of your Majesty's late Proclamation, which is wisely calculated to suppress, by legal Authority, whatever might eventually tend to unhinge the Minds of a large Description of your People, alienate them from their Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government, and render them insensible to their own Happiness and Welfare under your most gracious Protection.

That your Majesty's Reign may continue to be long, prosperous, and happy, is the unfeigned and ardent Wish of a Body of Men, whose more peculiar Province, it is to inculcate and promote, to the utmost of their Power, both by Precept and Example, good Order, Harmony, and universal Benevolence among all Ranks of their Fellow Creatures.

Given under the Common Seal of our Archdeaconry, this 2d Day of August, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach your Presence with Hearts impressed with the deepest Sense of the Blessings which we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, have enjoyed under your Majesty's long, prosperous and happy Reign.

While we presume to express our utmost Veneration for the happy Constitution under which we live, as settled, on a permanent Basis, at the ever memorable and Glorious Revolution, and our Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government, we at the same Time declare our Abhorrence of those dangerous and seditious Writings which have of late been published under the false Colour and Pretence of reforming a Constitution, already the Admiration and Envy of all Europe, and which, under your Majesty's benign and auspicious Reign, has diffused the happiest Gifts of Liberty amongst Millions.

We beg Leave further to return our heartfelt Thanks to your Majesty for your paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your People, expressed in your late Proclamation, so happily adapted to discourage and frustrate the wicked and traitorous Designs of the secret Enemies of our Constitution; and to declare our firmest Intention to support your Majesty's Person and Government, to the utmost of our Power, against all Enemies whatsoever.

By Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Dumbarton, Ja. Colquhoun.
