Whitehall, December 12

HIS Majesty has been pleased to order and direct the Lords Lieutenants of the several Counties undermentioned to embody such Part of the Militia Forces of the said Counties as has been trained and exercised in the present Year, viz.

Berks.
Bucks.
Cornwall.
Devon.
Dorfet.
Herts.
Surrey.
Southampton.
Suffex.

The Queen's Palace, December 15.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Mr. John Griffiths to be Surgeon of the Household to Her Majesty, in the Room of Mr. William Bromseild, deceased.

War-Office, December 11, 1792.

I T is the King's Pleasure that, notwithstanding any Leave of Absence granted by His Majesty, all Officers belonging to Regiments in Great Britain, or on Foreign Stations, do join their respective Corps without Delay; except such Officers as are employed on the Recruiting Service.

GEO. YONGE.

Whitehall, December 15.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, Bailiffs and Common-Council of the Town of Liverpool, has been presented to the King by Owen Salusbury Brereton, their Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of Liverpool, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

Observing by your Majesty's late Proclamation, "that the utmost Industry is employed by evil-"disposed Persons within this Kingdom, acting in Concert with Persons of Foreign Parts," we beg Leave to represent to your Majesty the Abhorrence with which we regard, and are determined to resist, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, all Attempts that are so obviously and vitally repugnant to every Principle of Reason, Gratitude and Duty.

We lament, with the most fincere Concern, that the Time should ever have arrived when it frems no longer superfluous in us to express, as we now do, the firm Allegiance, which we bear to your Mijesty's Person, and our unshaken Attachment to our invaluable Constitution.

We are happy, however, to afture your Majesty, at any other Juncture, we should have considently persuaded ourselves that it could only be a most inconsiderable Number of our Countrymen, who could prove themselves so unable to comprehend their best streets, or so unwilling to reverence their first Obligations, as deliberately to form a Plan, or entertain a Wish, either to overturn or to injure the admirable System of our Government. At the same Time, the Measures which your Majesty has taken to consult the Welfare of your Subjects, demand and receive our most grateful and loyal Thanks; and we rest satisfied that, for any Evils which may have been either discovered or apprehended by your Majesty in your Anxiety and Attention to the Happiness of your People, an adequate and timely Remedy will be found in the enlightened Wisdom of Parliament, and in that rational Loyalty, and that discriminating and virtuous Attachment to the Principles of the Constitution, which we are happy to believe will; and we ardently pray may, ever inspire the Wishes, and direct the Exertions of the Inhabitants of these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventh Day of December, 1792:

The following Address of the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn, has been prefented to the King by Sir Martin Browne Folkes; Bart, and the Hon. Horatio Walpole, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty:

- Most Gracious Sovereign,

W. E., your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, humbly beg Leave to offer the Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and our utter Abhorrence of every Attempt to subvert or impair the Constitution as established in these Kingdoms at the Bevolution.

Fully persuaded that the great National Blessings we enjoy can only be continued (as well to the lower as higher Ranks of Society) by a due Subjection to the Laws, and a temperate Use of our Privileges as a free People;

We are anxious to avow our firm Determination to support the legal Government of this Realm, and to promote; by our utmost Exertions, Tranquillity and good Order.

Admiralty-Office, December 13, 1792.

PUrsuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That the Ship Trusty, whereof John Harford was Master, bound on a Voyage from New York to Bristol, and laden with Lumber, was, on the 9th Instant, stranded on Northam Burrows, in the Port of Bideford.

John Ibbetson.

Admiralty-Office, December 14, 1792.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office that the Ship Expedition, of South Shields, William Saunderson, Master, bound from Dublin to Southampton, laden with Beef and Pork, was stranded on the 9th Instant at Nartham Burraws, in the Port of Bideford.

Pb. Stephens.