

and that we shall always be ready, to the utmost of our Power, to assist in discouraging all Proceedings which may tend to interrupt the Peace and Harmony of your Majesty's Dominions, and as it is our Duty, so it will ever continue to be our Inclination, to co-operate with your Majesty in securing these most desirable Objects.

The following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and loyal Address of your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Jews residing in Liverpool.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY affected at the many seditious and inflammatory Publications, that have of late been spread about this Kingdom by violent and wicked Men, with an Intention to inflame the Minds of your Majesty's loving Subjects against your Majesty's Person and our happy Constitution;

We beg Leave respectfully to address your Majesty, and to declare our zealous and firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; and although differing in Sentiments of Religion from your Majesty and many of your loyal Subjects, we heartily join them in Fealty and Love.

Highly sensible of the Liberty and Protection we have at all Times experienced, and the Blessings we now enjoy under your Majesty's mild, just and auspicious Government, call forth our warmest Gratitude; and we acknowledge our Readiness at all Times to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty and our excellent Constitution; and we will, to the utmost of our Power, exert ourselves to counteract and prevent the evil Attempts of all disaffected People.

Our Prayers shall be offered up to the Great God of Israel, imploring Health and Prosperity for your Majesty, and that your Majesty may long continue to sway your Sceptre over a great, free, affectionate and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Town of Salford, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Salford, impressed with the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude and Esteem for the many signal Proofs which your Majesty has been pleased to manifest of your constant Attention to the Welfare, Happiness and Prosperity of your People, think it a Duty incumbent upon us, particularly at this Time, again most humbly to approach the Throne, to assure your Majesty of our sincere and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty and our present most excellent Constitution.

We cannot behold, without the greatest Indignation, the Attempts of certain desperate, wicked and seditious Men, who, under the specious Pretence of Reformation, have, with uncommon Industry, circulated Writings and Opinions tending to excite a Spirit of Disaffection in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and relax the necessary Restraints of Law, at a Time when they so amply partake of every Blessing and Advantage which a well-regulated Government can afford; and our Abhorrence is still further heightened by the Combinations and Confederacies of several seditious Clubs established in this Country, in Concurrence with the Jacobin and other Societies in France, to effect their pretended Plan of Reform.

With these Sentiments, we beg Leave further to assure your Majesty, that we will be at all Times ready to co-operate with and assist the Civil Magistrates in suppressing all seditious and treasonable Publications and Assemblies within this Town; and that we are firmly resolved, on all Occasions, to counteract, with our best Endeavours, every Attempt to disturb the Public Peace and Tranquility.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal and affectionate People is our most sincere and fervent Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bury, Lancashire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bury, Lancashire, beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we continue to maintain our unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Person, Family and Government, and to express our deep Concern, that your paternal Exertions in suppressing the Endeavours of evil-disposed Persons within this Kingdom, acting in Concert with Persons in Foreign Parts, to subvert the Laws and Constitution of this Realm, have hitherto been ineffectual.

Sensible of the many Blessings exclusively enjoyed by your Majesty's Subjects, we are fully persuaded that every Attempt to overturn the Government of this Country must be an Attempt to deprive us of every Thing dear in Life; Personal Security, Liberty, Property, and the Means of providing for ourselves and Families.

Having, therefore, one common Interest with your Majesty in enforcing Obedience to the Laws, and being convinced that your first Will is to promote and secure the Happiness of your People, our Lives and Properties shall be freely devoted to the Support of your Majesty's Person and Government.
