His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letter abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person (except as before excepted) who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of One or more of the Offenders.

HENRY DUNDAS.

Whitehall, December 22, 1792.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Morning of Thursday the 13th Instant, Mr. Hart, Publican, on the Parade, Plymouth, received from the Letter Carrier belonging to the General Post-Office at Plymouth, to whom it had been delivered by the Letter Carrier of Plymouth Dock, an anonymous threatening Letter, without any Post Mark thereon, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

" P. D. Dec. 12, 1792."

" Mr. Hart "

" I am sorry you should have any Thing to do with the exalted Patriot Mr. Tho. Paine we renounce your Proceedings. Testify your Sorrow or beware of your Life. A Brace of Balls or a prepared Stiletto may shortly find the Way to your Heart and the Hearts of your detestable Accomplices whose Conduct is that of the groveling Flatterers of Vice. I'd have know that neither you or they shall pass unpunished unless you speedily and publickly recant. I know them all, and have to assure you & beg that you will communicate it to them that many of us are united to rid the Community of such despicable Fellows either in a public Manner or a covert Act. Regard the warning and prepare for your final Change."

Yours &c.
