WHEREAS, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for regulating the Allowance of the

His Majesty was pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the 15th of June, 1792, to approve of the Port of Exuma, in the Island of Exuma, one of the said Bahama Islands; and of the Port of St. George and the Port of Pembroke, in the said Island of Bermuda; to be Ports for the Importation of Sugar and Coffee, the Produce of any Foreign Country or Plantation, subject to the Regulations prescribed in the Acts of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Years of His Majesty's Reign, mentioned in the said Order in Council: And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that it will better answer the Purposes of the said Act, that the Port of Hamilton, in the Harbour of Crow Lane, in the said Island of Bermuda, should be approved as the Port for the Importation of Sugar and Coffee, the Produce of any Foreign Country or Plantation, instead of Pembroke, mentioned in the said Order. His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby to revoke and make void so much of the afore recited Order as approved of the Port of Pembroke (therein mentioned) for the Importation of Sugar and Coffee, the Produce of any Foreign Country or Plantation. The following Address has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Derby.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Derby, being deeply impressed with a proper Sense of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under our glorious Constitution, consisting of King, Lords and Commons, and perceiving, with the deepest Concern, that Attempts are made to circulate Opinions contrary to the dearest Interest of the People, feel it a Duty we owe to our Country, Ourselves and our Posterity, to invite all our Fellow Subjects to join with us in the Expression of a sincere and firm Attachment to your Majesty and the Constitution; a Constitution wisely framed for the Diffusion of Happiness, and which possesses the distinguished Merit that it has on former Occasions been, and we trust will in future be found competent to correct it's Errors and reform it's Abuses.

We therefore feel ourselves impelled to declare to your Majesty our determined Resolution to support, by every Means in our Power, the antient and most excellent Constitution of Great Britain, and to exert our best Endeavours to impress on the Minds of the People a Reverence for and due Submission to the Laws of our Country; and that we will do all in our Power to aid and assist the Civil Magistrate in maintaining the general Tranquillity, in suppressing all Riots and Disturbances from whatever Quarters they may arise, in bringing the Authors and Promoters to Punishment, and in discovering and bringing to Justice all Persons who shall, either by publishing or distributing seditious Papers or Writings, or by engaging in any seditious or tumultuous Assembly, endeavour to disturb the Public Peace, or excite Disaffection to the lawful, mild and equitable Government of this happy Country.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal and affectionate People, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.
