It is not to be wondered at, that the same Men, after having, in Breach of solemn and repeated Declarations, annexed some of the Countries, they have overrun, to their former Dominions, and obliged others, at the Point of the Sword, to accept a Constitution they disliked, should, on the most groundless Pretences, have declared War against Great Britain and the United Provinces; Guarantees of some of the Territories thus invaded and possessed, and the constant Defenders of all independent Powers, against the Aggressions and Encroachments of France.

We of this commercial Town are well aware that we may suffer severely in our Trade during the Con-
