Hague, March 22.

Intelligence has been received here of a Victory obtained by the Prince of Saxe-Cobourg over the French, at Neerlanden near Tirlemont, which was preceded by a long and sharp Action.

On the 15th Instant the advanced Posts of the Imperial Army had been beat back from Tirlemont; which was retaken by the Enemy: On the 16th M. Dumourier attempted to pass the Left Wing of the Imperial Army: On the 17th there was a Change of Position, and a brisk Cannonade; On the 18th, at Seven o'Clock in the Morning, M. Dumourier attacked the Center of the Imperial Army; but was repulsed: He was likewise repulsed by the Imperial Right Wing; but about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon M. Dumourier's Right Wing penetrated through the Imperial Left Wing, whose Cavalry was prevented from manœuvring, the Ground being intersected by Ditches: The Corps of Reserve, commanded by M. Clairfayt, then decided the Victory: The French retired in good Order until Six o'Clock in the Evening, when the Imperial Light Cavalry put them to the Rout.

The Number of killed and wounded is variously reported: It is said that the French have lost 33 Pieces of Cannon.

Navy-Office, March 24, 1793.

THERE being a Want of Surgeons Mates to serve in His Majesty's Ships, the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice to such Gentlemen as are willing to serve therein, that they will, on Application at this Office, receive Letters for Examination before the Surgeons Company, and have Warrants according to their Qualifications; and they will also be paid Conduct-Money on their first Appointment, at the Rate of Three-Pence per Mile from London to the Ports where the Ships they are appointed to lie, the same to be paid by the Clerk of the Cheque of the Yard, on their joining their Ships.
