

tation from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland of any Barley, Beer or Bigg, Peafe, Beans, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Bread or Biscuit made thereof; and also to declare, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until the Thirtieth Day of August then ensuing, it should be lawful to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, any Foreign Wheat, Wheat-Meal or Flour, Rye, Peafe, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats, or Oatmeal; and also to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any Foreign Barley, Peafe, Oats and Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other. And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Week ending the Seventeenth Day of August, 1793, that the General Average Prices of Wheat, Rye, Peafe, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, in that Part of Great Britain called England, are above the Prices at which Foreign Wheat, Wheat-Meal and Flour, Rye, Peafe, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Wheat, Wheat-Meal or Flour, or Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and every Provision, Regulation and Exception respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order contained, shall be and continue in Force until the Sixteenth Day of November, 1793, or until His Majesty shall think fit to revoke this present Order; and that the Prohibition to export Rye, Peafe, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and every Provision respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order contained, shall be and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of November, 1793. And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Month immediately preceding the Fifteenth Day of August, 1793, that the General Average Prices of Barley, Beer or Bigg, Peafe, Beans, Oats and Oatmeal, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, are above the Prices at which Foreign Barley, Beer or Bigg, Peafe, Beans, Oats and Oatmeal, are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Barley, Beer or Bigg, Peafe, Beans or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and every Provision, Regulation and Exception respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order contained, shall be and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of November, 1793. And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Permission to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any Foreign Rye, Peafe, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats or Oatmeal; and that the Permission to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any Foreign Barley, Peafe, Oats and Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other, in the said Order contained, shall be and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of November, 1793.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th of August, 1793,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council bearing Date the Thirtieth of March, 1793, to order, that an Embargo should be forthwith laid upon all Ships or Vessels laden or to be laden in any of the Ports of Great Britain with Salted Provisions of any Kind whatsoever, and also upon all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden with Butter and Cheese, Peafe, Beans, Rice, Hay, Straw, or Forage of any Kind whatsoever, and with Hides or Leather manufactured or unmanufactured; but it was His Majesty's Pleasure, amongst other Things, that the said Embargo should not extend to any Ships or Vessels, being British Ships and Vessels, and navigated according to Law, which may be employed in carrying any of the Articles abovementioned to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majesty: And whereas it has been represented, on Behalf of the Merchants Importers and Exporters of Rice, that Orders for Rice have been received from Foreign Ports, to which British Vessels very seldom resort, and that if the Exportation of Rice to Countries in Amity with His Majesty,
