

Navy-Office, October 23, 1793.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that all Bills registered on the Course of the Navy for the Months of January, February and March, 1791, are ordered to be paid in Money, that all Persons who are possessed of the same may bring them to this Office to be assigned on the Treasurer of the Navy for Payment. All Persons who hold the said Bills are desired to subscribe their Names and Places of Abode at the Bottom of each Bill.

Whitehall, October 22, 1793.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that a seditious Hand-Bill has been posted up on the Walls of Norwich, and circulated among the Inhabitants of that Town and it's Vicinity, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

" To all real Lovers of Liberty My Friends and Fellow Citizens.—

" It is with the greatest Joy I congratulate You on the Defeat of the combined Tyrants—Be assured that Liberty and Freedom will at last prevail
" Tremble O thou Oppressor of the People, that reigneth upon the Throne, and ye Ministers of State, weep for ye shall fall, Weep oh ye Conductors of this vile and wicked War, ye who grind the Face of the Poor, oppress the People, and starve the Industrious Mechanic—My Friends, you are oppressed, you know it,—Revenge it, Lord Buckingham who died the other Day, had Thirty Thousand Pounds, yearly For setting his Arse in the House of Lords, and doing nothing—Think of this, ye who work hard, and have hardly a Cruft to put in your Mouths, think how many wretches it would have made happy, in short my Friends Liberty calls aloud, ye who will hear her Voice may you be free, and happy, He who does not let him starve and be damned.

" Sunday, Sept. 14th.

" N, B, Be resolute, and you shall be happy, he who wishes well to the Cause of Liberty, let him repair to Chaple Field at Five oClock

" This Afternoon

" to begin a Glorious Revolution."

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and publishing the Hand-Bill abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote or published the said Hand-Bill) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person, (except as before excepted) who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of One or more of the Offenders.

HENRY DUNDAS.
