

tirely cut off, whilst a general Protection has been afforded to the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects.

We acknowledge the vigorous Interposition of your Excellency's Government, which has suppressed that Disposition to Infurrection, which was for some Time prevalent among some of the lower Order of the People, and are persuaded that no Exertion will be wanting, on your Part, to impress on their Minds a due Sense of Subordination and Order. We shall heartily concur in whatever Measures may be deemed effectual to defeat or punish the Machinations of those who may attempt to seduce their accustomed Loyalty, and stimulate them, to Acts of Sedition and Outrage.

We are highly gratified that the Institution of a National Militia has been successful, and that the People are reconciled to this constitutional Establishment: It's salutary Effects are universally felt in the Return of internal Tranquillity, which it secures, and in the Increase it has afforded to the Public Force of the Empire.

We are truly pleased with your Excellency's Communication from the Throne, that His Majesty has appointed a Commission, under the Great Seal, to execute the Office of High Treasurer in this Kingdom, in order that the Payment of the Civil List granted to the King, and a regular Appropriation of the Revenue to distinct Services, may be carried into Execution in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit. When we combine this important Measure with those salutary Bills of Regulation, which passed in the last Session, respecting the Grants of Offices and Pensions, and the Revenue of the Crown, we must be fully convinced of your Excellency's Knowledge of our real Interests, and of your efficient Exertions to promote them.

We thank your Excellency for ordering the National Accounts, as well as Estimates for the Service of the ensuing Year, to be laid before us. If the Exigencies of the Time shall require an extraordinary Supply and additional Resources, we shall not forget that we are engaged in a War of absolute Necessity for the Preservation of our Liberty, Properties and Religion; and we shall, at the same Time, consult the true Interest of the Kingdom, and maintain the Honor of His Majesty's Crown.

We shall afford the usual Support to the Protestant Charter Schools and the other Institutions of general Utility, which have been long the Object of our Attention; and we shall direct our serious Care to promote the Agriculture, the Commerce, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, of this Kingdom.

His Majesty's faithful People will continually endeavour to deserve that Confidence which His Majesty reposes in their Loyalty and Attachment: They will maintain their Religion and Constitution against the unjust Aggression of France, and will resist, with their Lives and Fortunes, the Efforts of those desperate Men, who are endeavouring to erect their Dominion on the Ruins of Law and Order, and to spread Confusion and Anarchy through every Government of Europe.

We are sincerely convinced that His Majesty will, in Conjunction with his Allies, use every favorable Occasion to effectuate a desirable Peace, whenever this great End can be procured without surrendering the Honor of his Crown or sacrificing the present or future Security of his People, and of the rest of Europe.

We are sensible of the Fidelity with which your Excellency represents our Exertions in His Majesty's Service; and having experienced the beneficial Effect of your Excellency's Administration, we entertain an earnest Hope, that His Majesty may long continue your Excellency in the Government of this Kingdom.
