

said Order mentioned and referred to, shall be and continue in Force until the Fourth Day of June, 1794.

And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Month immediately preceding the Fifteenth Day of February, 1794, that the General Average Price of Oats, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is above the Price at which Foreign Oats are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Oats from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and every Provision, Regulation and Exception respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order mentioned and referred to, shall be and continue in Force until the Fourth Day of June, 1794. And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Permission to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats or Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other, in the said Order contained, shall be and continue in Force until the Fourth Day of June, 1794.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkener.

At the Court at St. James's, the 12th of February, 1794,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the malignant and contagious Fever of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since manifested itself at Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, and in certain Towns of the State of New Jersey, in the United States of America, has totally ceased; His Majesty taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine laid, by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixth Day of November, 1793, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandize, arriving or to arrive from any of the Ports of the State of Pennsylvania, or of the State of Delaware, or of the State of New Jersey, in the United States of America, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done in case such Order of the Sixth Day of November, 1793, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding:— And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

War-Office, February 28.

WHEREAS His Majesty has thought proper to direct, that such Officers of the Regular Land Forces on Full or Half-Pay, as may be desirous to obtain One Step of Promotion, on Condition of raising a certain Number of Men, shall be permitted to do so; Officers who have received any Difference on retiring to the Half-Pay excepted: It is therefore His Majesty's Pleasure that the Officers who are inclined to undertake the abovementioned Service do lose no Time in signifying the same to this Office, when they shall be immediately informed of the Terms on the Completion of which it is proposed to grant them Promotion.

By His Majesty's Command,

GEO. YONGE.

To OFFICERS on HALF-PAY.

IT being desirable that a certain Number of Officers on Half-Pay should be attached to and serve with the Regiments of Militia, where they will receive the Full Pay of the Ranks they serve in, without Prejudice to their receiving their Half Pay; It is therefore requested, that all Officers on Half-Pay, who are desirous of serving in the Militia as Subalterns, will signify such their Desire to the Secretary at War, who may take proper Steps for making their Wishes known to the Lords Lieutenants of Counties, through the respective Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Militia.

By His Majesty's Command,

GEO. YONGE.

85th Regiment of Foot, Lieutenant-Colonel George Nugent, from the Coldstream Foot-Guards, to be Lieutenant-Colonel Commandant.

To be Majors,

Captain the Hon. Edward Bligh, from the 3d Foot Guards.

Captain Charles Dawkins, from the 1st Dragoon Guards.
