

AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th of May, 1794.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is highly important to the internal Tranquillity and future Security of the Islands, or Territories, Parts of Islands; in the West Indies, which, since the Commencement of the present War, have been conquered by His Majesty's Arms, or surrendered to His Majesty, to prevent, during the Continuance of the said War, too great a Resort to such Islands, or Parts of Islands, of Persons not Subjects to His Majesty, and particularly of such as are Enemies to His Majesty; His Majesty, taking the Premises into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That no Person, being an Alien, who shall have been a Subject of His late Most Christian Majesty, or shall be under the Government of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, shall resort or go to such Parts of the Island of St. Domingo as are or may be in the Possession of His Majesty, or to the Island of Martinique, or to any other Islands or Parts of Islands in the West Indies, Part of the Dominions of His late Most Christian Majesty, which are or may be in the Possession of His Majesty, during the said War, without special Licence first had and obtained from His Majesty, or from the Governor appointed by His Majesty, or, in his Absence, the Lieutenant-Governor so appointed, or the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at Jamaica or the Leeward Islands respectively, or some Persons or Person authorized to grant such Licence by His Majesty, or by such Commander in Chief at Jamaica or the Leeward Islands respectively: And it is further ordered, that no such Alien shall be permitted to land in any of the said Islands, or Parts of Islands, so in the Possession of His Majesty, without such Licence as aforesaid: But nevertheless His Majesty is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed or taken in any Manner to affect any Treaty or Capitulation made or entered into upon the Conquest or Surrender of such Islands or Parts of Islands respectively, or any Article or Thing in any such Treaty or Capitulation contained. And the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors so appointed by His Majesty in the said Islands and Parts of Islands, and the Commanders in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at Jamaica and the Leeward Islands respectively, are to give the necessary Directions hereina as. to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th of May, 1794.

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint William Shaw Lord Cathcart to be Lord Lieutenant of the Shire of Clackmannan in North Britain, His Lordship this Day took and subscribed the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and also subscribed the Assurance, conformably to what is required by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st of May,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Island of St. Lucia, and the Island of Guadaloupe, with Marie Galante and it's other Dependencies, in the West Indies, have been conquered by His Majesty's Forces under the Command of General Sir Charles Grey and Vice-Admiral Sir John Jervis, and the same are now in His Majesty's Possession: And whereas by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, " An Act more effectually " to prevent, during the present War between Great " Britain and France, all Traitorous Correspondence " with, or Aid or Assistance being given to, His " Majesty's Enemies," all Persons residing or being in Great Britain are prohibited, under the Penalties of High Treason, during the Continuance of the present War between Great Britain and France, from supplying, to or for the Use of any Person or Persons residing or being within any of the Dominions of France, or any Town, Territory, Port or Place annexed to France, or under the Government of the Persons then exercising, or who might thereafter, during the said War, exercise the Powers of Government in France, divers Articles specified in the said Act, without Licence from His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, or by Order in Council, or by Proclamation, first had and obtained, specifying the Articles with respect to which the same shall be had and obtained, and also the Place and Places from which and to which the same shall be sent. His Majesty, taking the Premises into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful to and for all Persons residing or being in Great Britain, to sell, supply and deliver from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe, or in any Country in Amity with His Majesty, to the said

Island.
