Bayona, May 26.

Marechall Mollendorff, on the 24th Instant, surprized the French in their Entrenchments in the Neighbourhood of Kellmestern, and defeated them with great Loss. The Force of the French consisted of about Twelve Thousand Men. They were posted behind the Ditches of Otterbach, Hagelbach, and the Lanter. The Whole of this Country was covered with Redoubts and Entrenchments; several Dykes had been cut, and the Bridges were every where destroyed; while Three strong Positions were prepared, to facilitate their Retreat in case of Accidents. The Loss of the French amounts to One Thousand killed, more than Two Thousand Prisoners, Eighteen Pieces of Cannon, and Two Howitzers. After the Engagement, Marechall Mollendorff established his Head Quarters at Winnweiler, and the Prince of Hohenloe Inspringen took Possession of Neustadt. The advanced Posts of the Prussian Army extend as far as Deux Pons and Carlsberg.

Whitchall, May 24, 1794.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the Night of the 8th Instant, the Cellar of the Dwelling-House belonging to the Reverend Luke Thompson, Vicar of Appleton in Street, near Malton, in the County of York, was burglariously broken open and entered by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, and that upwards of Four Dozen of Wine, in Bottles, were stolen thereout: That, about Four or Five Nights after, an Attempt was made to break into the Dairy of the aforesaid Premises, but without Effect; and that, on the 16th, another Attempt was made to break into the Butler's Pantry, upon which the Man Servant, bearing a Knife, got out of Bed, and in going from the said Pantry into the Kitchen was fired at by some Person on the Outside of the House, by which Firing the Hall Window was broken.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Burglary and Robbery, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the said Dwelling-House) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me

M. D. Robinson, Essex-Street.
