Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was received on Sunday last, from His Royal Highnets the Duke of York, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Tournay, June 6, 1794.

Have the Pleasure to inform you, that, on the 3d Inflant, the Combined Army, under the Command of the Hereditary Prince of Orange, attacked the Enemy, who was posted at Fontaine l'Eveque, in order to cover a Part of their Forces, which was besigging Charieroi, and compelled them to raise the Siege and return across the Sambre, where they now remain.

Right Hon. Henry Dunday ಆ . ಆ . ಆ .

Whitehall, June 10.

HE Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, was received on Sunday last from Admiral Lord Hood, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Victory, off Baftia, May 24, 1794. Have the Honor to acquaint you, that the Town and Citadel of Bastia, with the several Posts upon the Heights, surrendered to the Arms of His Majesty on the 22d. On the 19th I received a Meffage, that the Garrison was desirous of capitulating upon ho-norable Terms; in consequence of which I sent the inclosed Note on Shore. This brought on Board the Victory Three Officers, who informed me that Gentili, the Commandant, would affemble the Officers

Sun-set. The next Day I received a Note from Gentili, which I also inclose, and sent Captain Young on Shore, on the Morning of the 21st, who from returned to the Victory, with Two Officers and Two of the Administrative Bodies, which, with Vice-Admiral Goodall, Captain Young, Captain Inglefield, and my Secretary, Mr. M'Arthur, settled the Articles of Capitulation, which were figned the following Morning, when His Majesty's Troops took Possession of all the Posts above the Town, the Troops in each retiring to the Citadel, from whence they marched to the Mole Head, where they grounded their Arms, and were embarked. You will receive herewith the Articles of Capitulation, which I hope His Majesty will

I am unable to give due Praise to the unremitting Zeal, Exertion and judicious Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Villettes, who had the Honor of commanding His Majesty's Troops; never was either more conspicuous. Major Brereton, and every Officer and Soldier under the Lieutenant-Colonel's Orders, are juilly entitled to my warmest Acknowledgments; their persevering Ardour and Desire to diffinguish themselves cannot be too highly spoken of, and which it will be my Pride to remember to the latest Period of my Life:

Captain Nelfon, of His Majesty s Ship Agamemnon, who had the Command and Directions of the Seamen, in landing the Guns, Mortars and Stores; and Captain Hunt, who commanded at the Batteries, very ably affifted by Captain Buller and Captain Serocold, and the Lieutenants Gore, Hotham, Stiles, Andrews and Brisbane, have an equal Claim to my Gratitude, as the Seamen under their Management worked the Guns with great Judgment and Alacrity. Never was an higher Spirit or greater Perseverance exhibited, and I am happy to say, that no other Contention was at any Time known, than who should of the several Corps, and of the Municipality, if a be most forward and indefaugable for promoting His Truce took Place, which I agreed to, a little before Majesty's Service; for, although the Difficulties they be most forward and indefatigable for promoting His
