War-Office, Dublin-Castle, June 13.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Major-General Eustace to be Major-General on the Staff of this Kingdom; in the room of Lieutenant-General Stopford, resigned; and

Lieutenant-Colonel Handfield to act as Deputy-Quarter-Master General of this Kingdom, in the room of Major-General Eustace.

Whitehall, June 23, 1794.

Whereas Samuel Williams, who stands charged before the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council with treasonable Practices, and was committed by their Lordships for further Examination, did, on the Evening of Thursday last, escape from Custody: The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby pleased to promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend or cause to be apprehended the said Samuel Williams, so as he may be brought before the said Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, to be further dealt with according to Law.

The above mentioned Samuel Williams is about Twenty-one Years of Age, of a fair Complexion, light Hair tied behind, thick set, ill made, and rather short in his Person; he is much marked with the Small Pox. He is an Apprentice to Mr. Whitton, a Gun Engraver, who lives and is employed in the Tower of London. The said Samuel Williams is supposed to be attempting to escape from the Kingdom aboard some Vessel.

HENRY DUNDAS.

Navy-Office, May 29, 1794.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that, in pursuance of an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, they will receive the Navy and Transport Bills which come within the Description of those lately ordered to be funded, as may be presented at this Office on or before the 1st Day of July next.

Navy-Office, June 6, 1794.

Whereas Samuel Travers, Esq; long since deceased, by his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the 16th of July, 1724, after giving several pecuniary Legacies, devised the Residue of his Real and Personal Estates to his Executors therein named, upon Trust that they should, out of the Rents and Profits thereof, settle an Annuity of Sixty Pounds, to be paid to each of Seven Gentlemen, to be added to the Poor Knights of Windsor, and that a Building might be erected or purchased, in or near the Castle of Windsor, for an Habitation for the said Seven Gentlemen, who were to be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English Men of War: And the said Testator desired that the Gentlemen so to be incorporated might be single Men, without Children, inclined to lead a virtuous, studious and devout Life, to be removed if they gave Reason of Scandal, and that he would have them live in a Collegiate Manner, in order whereunto he would have Twenty-six Pounds per Annum deducted out of their several Allowances to keep a constant Table.

And whereas the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath, by Letter dated the 1st of last Month, signified
