PROCLAMATION of his Excellency Brigadier-General Whyte, commanding His Britannick Majesty's Forces in St. Domingo.

THE Commissioners and their Agents, in order to carry into Execution those perfidious Designs which have proved so fatal to the Lives, the Laws, the Liberty and the Happiness of this once flourishing Colony, have every where calumniated the British Government.

General Whyte, who has the Honor to represent His Britannic Majesty, assures the Inhabitants of Port au Prince, and it's Vicinity, that the Object of His Majesty and of his Government is to restore Peace among every Class of Inhabitants.

Those Parts of the Colony, which have already placed themselves under His Majesty's Protection, can bear a faithful Testimony that there is nothing oppressive in the Behaviour and Laws of the English.

A considerable Part of the People of St. Domingo has been seduced from it's Duty; these Persons are hereby invited to return to their Occupations, to lay down their Arms, and to forget every Cause of Resentment.

The English Government demands, and will obtain, by Force if necessary, that peaceful Obedience which is due to it's mild and just Laws.

The
