

Whitehall, July 21.

The following Address has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, Close and Neighbourhood, happy in every Opportunity of testifying our Affection and Zeal to your Majesty's Person and Government, most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the very signal Victory obtained over the French Fleet on the 1st of June by the British Navy under the Command of Admiral Earl Howe.

We embrace this Opportunity likewise to congratulate your Majesty on the Conquests which have been made by the Fleet and Army in the West Indies, under the Command of Sir John Jervis and Sir Charles Grey.

We ardently invoke that Providence which disposes your Royal Breast to promote and secure the Welfare and Happiness of all your Subjects, that these brilliant Successes of your Majesty's Arms may be the Means of checking the violent and sanguinary Measures of the Enemy, and of restoring to all the Belligerent Powers the Blessings of Peace, and that your Majesty may very long enjoy the Affections of a free, great and loyal People.
