Whitehall, July 29.

THE following Address having been transmitted by William Pulteney, Esq; to the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg:
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg, met in Synod, beg leave to approach your Throne, in all Humility, to express our sincere and heartfelt Attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

As public Teachers of Christianity we have Reason to acknowledge, that, under God, the Protection given by your Majesty to our Church, and to the Interests of Religion in general, affords the most consolatory Hope that our Labours will be crowned with Success:

While we view with Horror the direful Effects of Infidelity, and it's concomitant Evil, Anarchy, which have for some Time prevailed in a great neighbouring Nation, and peculiarly lament the Progress which these Principles are making in some Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, we exult in the Assurance, which we have it in our Power to give your Majesty, of the unshaken Loyalty to your illustrious House and Government, universal among the People committed to our Charge, comprehending an extensive District of this Part of the united Kingdom:

We trust your Majesty will have the Goodness to believe, that our most strenuous Efforts shall be uniformly directed to cherish and enliven these laudable Sentiments.

We congratulate our King and Country on the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms; and we fervently pray, that the Lord of Hosts may continually go forth with your Fleets and Armies.

[ Price Eight-pence. ]

That the King of Kings may have under His Divine Protection your Royal Person, and that a King of your Royal Race may sway the Sceptre of these Realms to the End of Time, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal,
and devoted Subjects;

The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by
