

Navy-Office, June 6, 1794.

Whereas Samuel Travers, Esq; long since deceased, by his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the 16th of July, 1724, after giving several pecuniary Legacies, devised the Residue of his Real and Personal Estates to his Executors therein named, upon Trust that they should, out of the Rents and Profits thereof, settle an Annuity of Sixty Pounds, to be paid to each of Seven Gentlemen, to be added to the Poor Knights of Windsor, and that a Building might be erected or purchased, in or near the Castle of Windsor, for an Habitation for the said Seven Gentlemen, who were to be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English Men of War: And the said Testator desired that the Gentlemen so to be incorporated might be single Men, without Children, inclined to lead a virtuous, studious and devout Life, to be removed if they gave Reason of Scandal, and that he would have them live in a Collegiate Manner, in order whereunto he would have Twenty-six Pounds per Annum deducted out of their several Allowances to keep a constant Table.

And whereas the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath, by Letter dated the 1st of last Month, signified to the Commissioners of the Navy His Majesty's Pleasure, that they should, pursuant to the said Will, and a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in that Behalf, choose such a Number of superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of the Royal Navy as they should think proper, and return the Names of such Officers to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in the Manner directed by the said Will, for the Purpose of carrying the same into Effect: The said Commissioners of the Navy do therefore hereby give Notice to such Lieutenants, as are desirous of accepting Appointments, under the above-mentioned Provisions and Regulations, to make their Appearance at this Office on Wednesday the 1st Day of October next, and to bring with them Certificates and other Testimonials, to show that they come within the Meaning of the said Will. And such Lieutenants as by Reason of their Residence being distant from this Office are not able to attend in Person, are desired to send a State of their Case, and the Testimonials above-mentioned, on the said Day, in order that the said Commissioners may select a List of Twenty one qualified Objects, to be by them transmitted to the Lords of the Admiralty, whereout their Lordships may choose Fourteen to be submitted to His Majesty, in order that, out of such reduced Number, His Majesty may be graciously pleased to nominate Seven, to be the Persons first appointed Poor Knights under the said Will.
