

said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

London, November 11.

On Saturday last Thomas Skinner, Esq; Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

Yesterday the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pendants, to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the new Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed; and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Friars, and from thence in Coaches, with the usual Solemnity, to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present several of the Foreign Ministers, the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and many other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

Dublin Castle, November 5.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, in the Morning the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower; at Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; after which his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a Squadron of Horse, went in Procession round the Statue of King William. On his Excellency's Return to the Castle the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in College Green. And at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

NOTICE to INDEPENDENT and UN-ATTACHED OFFICERS.

War-Office, November 4, 1794.

HIS Majesty is pleased to order, that all the Officers of Independent Companies, and such as have obtained Rank unattached, shall be reduced to Half-Pay on the 25th Day of this Month; those only excepted who are now actually employed on Duty, or who shall apply in Person at the Adjutant General's Office, within Three Weeks from the Date hereof, requesting to be so employed.

His Majesty is further pleased to declare His Royal Intention, that the Officers, who, in the Manner above-mentioned, make known their Desire of serving, shall be immediately appointed to Vacancies now subsisting in the Regiments lately raised and raising; or be otherwise provided for, as Opportunities may offer, without any Expence to themselves; and that, until provided for, they shall continue to receive Full Pay, as Independent or Unattached Officers.

By His Majesty's Command,

W. Windham.
