

At the House of John Vernon, the Royal Oak Inn, in Manchester, the 31st of January, 1795.

Memorandum: That we whose Names are herunto subscribed, being the major Part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Robert Kenyon, of Withington, in the Parish of Manchester in the County of Lancaster, and John Ditchfield, of Manchester aforesaid, Merchants, Manufacturers and Copartners in Trade, met the Day and Year and at the Place abovementioned, pursuant to Notice in the London Gazette, in order to finish the said Bankrupts last Examination, when and where the said Bankrupts attended and submitted to be examined; but the Assignees of the Estate and Effects of the said Bankrupts being desirous that further Time might be allowed to enable them to inspect and examine into the said Bankrupts Books and Accounts before such final Examination took Place: We do therefore, at the Request of the said Assignees and Creditors this Day present, adjourn the further Examination of the said Bankrupts until the 26th Day of February next, then to commence at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the House of the said John Vernon, the Royal Oak Inn, in Manchester aforesaid.

GEORGE LLOYD.
WILLIAM ROBERT KAY.
EDWARD CHESSHIRE.
LAW WALKER.

Whereas James Whittaker, late of Checkley Green in the Parish of Wyburnbury in the County of Chester, Sawyer, the eldest Son of James Whittaker, late of Checkley Green aforesaid, Yeoman, deceased, and which said last mentioned James Whittaker was the eldest Son of Roger Whittaker, heretofore of Betley in the County of Stafford, Gentleman, deceased (about Twenty-seven Years ago left his Father, and was supposed to go either to Chester or Liverpool, but hath not been since heard of, and presumed to be dead, otherwise than about some short Time after his leaving Checkley Green aforesaid, a Box, containing his Cloaths, and a Letter from him intimating that he was then very ill and likely to die, and which Letter and Box were brought by Hugh Whittaker, late of Winehill in the said County of Chester, Innkeeper, since deceased, from the Hop Pole Inn, Chester, directed to Ralph Whittaker, (the eldest Brother and Heir at Law of the first mentioned James Whittaker): And whereas the several Registers of the respective Parish Churches in the City of Chester and Town of Liverpool have been searched, but no Entry of the Interment of the first mentioned James Whittaker can be found, nor any other Evidence of his Death, or if dead whether he died without Issue; and whereas it is presumed that upon the Death of the said first mentioned James Whittaker certain Premises in Betley aforesaid, formerly the Inheritance of the said Roger Whittaker, descended and came to the said Ralph Whittaker, as his the said first mentioned James Whittaker's eldest Brother and Heir at Law; which Premises have lately been sold by the said Ralph Whittaker by public Auction. Notice is hereby given for the said first mentioned James Whittaker, or his Issue, (if any) to come and make his, her or their Claim to the same Premises, as the Purchaser for the said Premises is intended to be immediately carried into Execution; and if any Person or Persons will give Information where the said first mentioned James Whittaker is, or if dead, his Issue (if any) they shall receive a handsome Reward by applying to Mr. William Harding, Attorney, in Betley aforesaid.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Fenner and others against Arundel and others, it was referred to John Spranger, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire what Children Zachariah Fenner, late of Blackman-Street in the County of Surry, Gentleman, deceased, William Hubbard, late of St. Petersburg in Russia, Factor, deceased, and Elizabeth Woolmer, formerly Hubbard, late of the City of Exeter, Widow, deceased, in the said Decree named, had respectively, at the Time Timothy Hargrave, late of New Brentford in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased, the Testator in the said Decree also named, made his Will, which bears Date the 10th Day of January, 1793, and also at the Time of his Death, which happened on the 30th Day of January, 1793: And also to enquire what Children the Children of the said Zachariah Fenner, William Hubbard and Elizabeth Woolmer (formerly Hubbard) had respectively, at the Time the said Testator made his said Will, and also at the Time of his Death; and if any of them are since dead, who is or are the personal Representative or Representatives: And also to enquire whether there were any, and what Number, of First Cousins of the said Testator, Timothy Hargrave, on the Father's Side, living at the Time he made his Will, and at the Time of his Death. The Children of the said Zachariah Fenner, William Hubbard and Elizabeth Woolmer, formerly Hubbard, and also such of the Children of the said Children as were living at the respective Times aforesaid, and are still living; and the Representative or Representatives of such of them as were then living, and are since dead; and also such of the First Cousins of the said Testator, on the Father's Side, as were living at the respective Times aforesaid, and are still living; and the Representative or Representatives of such of them as were then living, and are since dead, are forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their Claims, and prove their Kindred, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

BEDFORDSHIRE and HERTS.

TO be sold in Lots, in pursuance of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Lytton against Lytton, before Edward Leeds, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, The following Estates, late of John Robinson Lytton, Esq; deceased.

The Manor of Stotfold, in the County of Bedford, with the Quit-Rents and Fines belonging thereto.

A Farm in Stotfold, called the Lordship Farm, containing 256 Acres, and Four Cottages, with Homestalls, containing Eight Acres.

The Bell Inn in Stotfold, with 57 Acres of Land held therewith.

Stotfold Mill, with a Piece of Meadow and Three Pieces of Lammas Land held therewith.

The Manor of Antley, in the County of Hertford, with the Fines and Quit-Rents belonging thereto.

A Farm called Andybury Farm, containing 404 Acres of Arable, Meadow and Pasture Land, and 74 Acres of Wood Land.

A Farm in the Parish of Codicot, in the County of Hertford, called Mansell's Farm, containing 37 Acres.

A Farm in the Parishes of Gravely, Wymondley Parva and Stevenage, in the County of Hertford, containing 54 Acres.

The Manor of Letchworth, in the County of Hertford.

The perpetual Advowson of the Rectory of Letchworth.

A Farm called Letchworth Farms, containing 785 Acres.

The above Estates are all Freehold, except about 16 Acres, held with the Bell Inn in Stotfold, which are Copyhold.

Particulars to be had at the said Master's Chambers in Lincoln's Inn; of Mess. Odde and Foster, Cary-Street; and of Mr. Philpot; Red Lion Square, London.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Gibbon against Day, the separate Creditors of Thomas Day, late of Portland Place in the County of Middlesex, Esq; deceased, are forthwith to come in and prove their respective Debts before Peter Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Robert Lamb and others are Plaintiffs, and Robert Palliser Cooper, Esq; and others are Defendants, the Creditors of Walter Palliser, late of Laneham in the County of Nottingham, Clerk, deceased, are, on or before the 15th Day of April next, to come in and prove their Debts before Alexander Popham, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Ewbank and others against Yates and others, the Creditors of Richard Wells, late of Kingston in the Island of Jamaica, Gentleman, deceased, are, on or before the 24th Day of June next, to come in and prove their Debts before Alexander Popham, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Stehelin against Grove, the Creditors (if any) of Maria Holway, late of Great Titchfield-Street, in the Parish of St. Mary-le-Bonne, in the County of Middlesex, Widow, deceased, (who died on the 5th Day of February, 1768) are, on or before the 7th Day of March next, to come in and prove their Debts before John Spranger, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.