Admiralty-Office, April 8, 1795.

WHEREAS several Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy, now unemployed, have omitted to give Information to this Office of the Places of their Residence, notwithstanding the Notice inserted in the London Gazette in the Months of November and December last; It is the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that such Lieutenants do, within the Space of Six Weeks from this Date, or sooner if possible, transmit to this Office the Information required, and that such of them as are incapable, either from Age or bodily Infirmary, of further Service, do at the same Time transmit an Affidavit, from a qualified Surgeon, of such Inability, specifying therein the Cause or Causes thereof, that their Lordships may judge how far it may be proper to call for the further Services of such Lieutenants.

In case the same Disregard should be paid to this as hath been shewn to the former Notice, it is their Lordships Intention to mark their Disapprobation of the Conduct of such Officers in the strongest Manner, by striking their Names off the List of Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy.
