St. James's, May 9.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean of Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Chief Burgeses, Burgeses, High Constable, and Burgeses Assitants of your ancient City and Liberty of Westminster, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

It is with the deepest Sense of Duty, Gratitude and Affection that we reflect on your Majesty's unwearied Care and Concern for the Happiness of your People; and it is our earnest and constant Prayer, that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous, and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal House to perpetuate in these Kingdoms the invaluable Blessings of the British Constitution, administered with the same mild, just and temperate Government that has established your Majesty's Throne in the Hearts of your People.

Given under our Common Seal the 8th Day of May, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Bedford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Bedford, desire most humbly to offer our sincere Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick. Every Addition of domestic Happiness to your Majesty must equally be the Source of Satisfaction to your faithful People. Permit us, Sire, to express our unfeigned Assurances of Duty and Affection; and we most fervently, that your Reign may be long and prosperous; and that Respect for your Majesty's Person, Obedience to the Laws, and a true Sense of the Blessings of our inestimable Constitution, may possess the Hearts of your Majesty's Subjects throughout your Dominions.

John Harvey, Sheriff.

[Presented by John Harvey, Esq; High Sheriff for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Southampton, desirous of giving every Testimony in our Power of our zealous Attachment to your Majesty and to your
