

your Family, as well as of our Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the recent Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick, under a firm Persuasion that this Event will tend to secure to this Country a Continuance of the Advantages we derive from the constitutional Government of these Kingdoms in your Majesty's Family.

We trust, therefore, your Majesty will graciously condescend to receive these our Congratulations on an Occasion which cannot but be highly satisfactory to your Majesty, and which is likely to be productive of permanent Benefit to these Kingdoms and your Majesty's People.

By Direction and on Behalf of the Meeting of the said County, holden at the Castle of Winchester on Monday the 4th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Witber Bramston, Sheriff.

[Presented by Witber Bramston, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Suffex, request Leave to present to your Majesty this unfeigned Testimony of Joy upon the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. This happy Event we consider as an additional Security to the many Blessings derived to us from your mild and parental Government. Deign then, Sire, we humbly intreat you, to accept these cordial Effusions of Loyalty and Gratitude; they prove how sincerely we revere that benevolent Wisdom of your Majesty, which thus connects the dearest Interests of the Community with the firmest Pledges of domestic Union.

May you long continue to reign in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects, and may the British Throne be filled, to the latest Posterity, by your Descendants, emulous of your Royal Virtues, and proud to deserve that Character which so justly distinguishes your Majesty's Reign, the beloved Father of a grateful People.

Fra. Newbery, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of Worcestershire, do humbly beg Leave to present our Congratulations to your Majesty, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and with the utmost Duty to assure your Majesty, we look upon it with unspeakable Comfort, as a Means under the Divine Providence, of securing, to future Ages, the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Nation, as we now happily and thankfully enjoy them, under the Protection of your Majesty's just and mild Government.

Wm. Wainson, Sheriff of the said County.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of your Majesty's ancient and faithful City of Worcester, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with our warm and affectionate Congratulations on the late happy Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick: An Union which, while it must confer the most singular Satisfaction and Pleasure on your Majesty and your Royal Family, at the same Time affords to your Majesty's Subjects the pleasing Prospect of insuring to them, and their Posterity, a Continuance of the Blessings of that true Liberty which the People of this happy Country possessed under your Royal Ancestors, and which we now, in a peculiarly eminent Degree, enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and auspicious Government.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the said City, this 24th of April, 1795.

[Presented by Mr. Williams, Sheriff of the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the auspicious Nuptials of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales; an Event which promises to augment the domestic Felicity of your Majesty, and all your Royal Family, and increase our National Welfare and Security, by perpetuating the Reign of the illustrious House of Hanover. We also trust your Majesty will graciously accept our ardent Wishes that your Majesty may reign long and happily over a grateful and loyal People; and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Progeny to fill the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal this 29th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Ric. Metcalfe, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir William Mordaunt Milner, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Southampton, rejoicing at every Event on which they may be permitted to approach your Throne, humbly offer their Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, a Connection, the Influence of which is not confined to the narrow Limits of domestic Life, but deeply interests all your Majesty's loyal Subjects for the Happiness of the most accomplished Prince in Europe, thus united with a Princess, whose personal Endowments reflect an Honor on the illustrious House from which she is descended.

Permit us, Sire, to claim our Share of the general Joy on this Occasion, and to express our fervent Wishes that, after many yet unnumbered Years of Prosperity and Honor, your Majesty may close an auspicious Reign in the pleasing Persuasion that your Crown will descend, with undiminished Dignity, to the Princes of your Royal Family for many Generations.

[Presented by J. Anyatt and G. H. Rose, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]
