

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most respectful and hearty Congratulations on the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and to express our peculiar Satisfaction, that your Majesty and the Prince have chosen for his Consort a Princess of that illustrious House, to which we owe a Race of Kings, whose mild Government and uniform Affection for their People, have taught us how to value the Blessings of our excellent Constitution. Attached from Inclination, from Experience, and from Duty, to that Constitution, we rejoice at seeing a Prospect that the same Happiness which we have enjoyed will be continued to our Posterity under the same illustrious Family; and we feel the deepest Sense of Gratitude to your Majesty for the bright Example you have set to an amiable and accomplished Prince. Permit us to renew the Assurances we lately offered to the Throne of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty and to the Constitution, and to request that your Majesty will graciously accept our fervent Wishes, that there may never be wanting a Prince of the House of Brunswick to reign, like your Majesty, in the Hearts of a free, a grateful and a happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the 4th Day of May, 1795.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Charles Townshend, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Permission to offer our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the auspicious Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with her Serene Highness the Princess of Brunswick; a Circumstance in the highest Degree grateful and interesting to all your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

We experience peculiar Satisfaction in an Event replete with such an Accession of domestic Felicity to your Majesty and the Royal Family; and which promises to Posterity, a Continuance of the inestimable Blessings enjoyed by us and our Fellow Subjects under the mild and equitable Government of your Majesty and your illustrious House.

Given under our Common Seal the 29th Day of April, in the Thirty-fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord 1795.

By Order,

John Travis, Town Clerk, and Deputy Recorder.

[Presented by the Earl of Tyrconnel and Lieutenant-General Phillips, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere and humble Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; an Event which promises to augment the domestic Felicity of your Majesty, and carries the Hopes and Expectations of your faithful Subjects onward to a State of National Happiness to the latest Posterity.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that, in declaring these genuine Sentiments of our affectionate Duty, we express at the same Time our real and fervent Attachment to your most sacred Person, and to the Hereditary and Constitutional Monarchy of these Realms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 4th Day of May, 1795.

[Presented by Lord Dorchester, High Steward of the Corporation of Dorchester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Montrose.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Montrose, deeply impressed with a Sense of the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and fully persuaded that the Continuance of our political Happiness is necessarily connected with the Stability of your Majesty's Royal House, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere Expressions of Congratulation on the happy Event of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Firmly and inviolably attached to the glorious Constitution of these Kingdoms, and to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, we cannot view but with the most sensible Pleasure an Event, which we consider as an additional Security for our own Happiness, and a Pledge of the Liberties and Privileges which we enjoy, being transmitted, unimpaired, to succeeding Generations.

Signed and sealed by our Appointment, this 29th Day of April, in the Year 1795.

Adam Glegg, Provost.

[Presented by his Grace the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Kinghorn, in Common Council assembled.

S I R,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of your ancient Burgh of Kinghorn, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess, of whose Virtues and Accomplishments we have heard so many favourable Reports.

Of their Happiness we cannot have a Doubt; and we assure your Majesty that we have double Pleasure on the Occasion, from reflecting on the Happiness which
