

elves that Happiness your Majesty has long enjoyed in the Affection, Veneration and Esteem of your Subjects.

Signed, at the Request of the County,
Ralph Allen Daniell, Sheriff.

[Presented by Ralph Allen Daniell, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy and others, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, of the County of Somerset, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our most respectful Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Most Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

An Alliance so greatly important to the Public Good, we are assured, must be the Source of increased Happiness to your Majesty; and attached, as we most sincerely are, to your Majesty's Person and Family, we heartily rejoice in an Event which promises to add to your Majesty's domestic Comforts, and is so happily calculated to perpetuate to us our National Prosperity and the many invaluable Blessings which we have enjoyed under the just and mild Government of the Princes of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Edw. Lyne, Sheriff of Somersetshire.

[Presented by Edward Lyne, High Sheriff, attended by Sir John Trowellhan, Bart. and Henry Hippley Cox, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty and your Royal Consort on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick; a Marriage which we ardently hope and are assured will increase your Majesty's domestic Comforts, and tend to perpetuate those invaluable Blessings which this Kingdom has so eminently enjoyed under the Reign of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We beg Leave to renew those loyal and affectionate Sentiments of Attachment to your Majesty's Family and Government, for which this County has ever been distinguished.

By Direction and on Behalf of the Meeting of the said County.

J. Montagu, Sheriff.

[Presented by Ambrose Goddard, Esq. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Sentiments of sincere Congratulation on an Event so essentially connected with the Happiness and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, as the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the House of Brunswick.

Sensible of the many Blessings we have ever enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious

Government, we cannot but feel an additional Satisfaction in the Prospect of their being continued to ourselves and our Posterity.

Edward Greatbod, Sheriff.

[Presented by Francis John Browne and John Morton Pitt, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled, submit to your gracious Acceptance our unfeigned Congratulation on the auspicious Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

The experienced Felicity of these Kingdoms, during the benign Influence of your Royal Ancestry, solicits our grateful Remembrance; the Paternal Attention vouchsafed by yourself, amidst the arduous Contingencies of Government, conciliates our warmest Affection; and the happy Presage of an illustrious Union, gives Confidence to our Hopes for the Welfare of Posterity.

Long may your Majesty, and the Descendants of your Royal House, abide in the full Vindication of our Rights and Liberties, whilst the propitious Effects of steadfast Unanimity distinguish the British Constitution, as the Purity of Freedom, the Source of Happiness, and the just Admiration of surrounding Nations.

Given under our Common Seal the 2d Day of May, in the Thirty-fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by William Anderson, Esq; Mayor, Mr. Sheriff Harington, Mr. Sheriff Crook, Mr. Alderman Mosey, and Mr. Alderman Palmer, accompanied by Lord Viscount Weymouth and the Master of the Rolls, the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Chichester, with all Humility presume to approach the Throne with our most ardent and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the late auspicious Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We, your Majesty's faithful Citizens, felicitate ourselves on an Alliance which promises Stability to the Succession to the Throne of these Realms in your Royal House; and we most ardently pray, that such Union may augment the domestic Happiness of your Majesty and of your Royal Family, under whose just and mild Government we have so long enjoyed an increasing Series of Felicity and Prosperity, and that your Majesty may long live to rule over a loyal and free People, and the Sceptre of this Kingdom be swayed by your Royal Progeny to the latest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed the 12th Day of May, in the 35th Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Portland.]
