

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

WE, the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, faithfully attached to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and sincerely rejoicing in every Occurrence whereby your Majesty may receive Satisfaction or Comfort, most humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our warmest Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Illustrious Princess Caroline of Brunswick; a Princess as deservedly admired for her Accomplishments as she is dignified by her Virtues; and we cheerfully contemplate, that a Union of Hearts so congenial to each other, assisted by the amiable Examples of your Majesty and our most gracious Queen, will, we ardently hope, prove a Source of unspeakable Happiness to your Majesty, and the Admiration and Pride of all the Good and Virtuous under your Majesty's most happy Government.

And we most humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may long live the Guardian and Protector of a happy, loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Trinity House aforesaid, the 11th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Cuthb. Adamson, Master.

[ Presented by Sir Mathew White Ridley, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our earnest Congratulations on the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

As we feel the warmest Interest in every Event in which the domestick Happiness of your Majesty and of our most excellent Queen is concerned, we are anxious to express our sincere Joy in an Alliance with a Princess whose Virtues cannot fail to contribute to the Comfort of our Sovereign, and the Felicity of his People.

It is our united Wish that your Majesty's Reign may be long and happy, and that the present auspicious Event may be the Means of ensuring, to future Ages, that uninterrupted Prosperity which we and our Ancestors have so long enjoyed, under the Government of your Majesty's illustrious House.

By the Appointment, and in the Name of a General Meeting of the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh, held at Jedburgh this 30th Day of April, 1795;

A. Rams.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, impressed with a lively Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty on the late auspicious Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Carohne of Brunswick.

We participate in the Happiness this Marriage must give to your Majesty and your Royal Consort, and with the truest Satisfaction we contemplate the Prospect afforded to ourselves and Posterity in the Continuance of those Blessings under the same illustrious House and our invaluable Constitution.

Jasper Hulley, Mayor, by Order of the Meeting.

[ Presented by the Right Hon. the Master of the Rolls. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury in the County of Oxford, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the auspicious Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. Animated with the sincerest Attachment to your Majesty and your illustrious House, as well from Principle as from the Happiness we derive under your mild and excellent Government, we cannot be Strangers to Joy upon every Event that happens which can in any Degree contribute to the Felicity of your Majesty, or any Part of your Family; more particularly so when (as in the present Instance of our Congratulations) the Subject not only concerns the Happiness of your Majesty and your august Family, but also the future Happiness, Welfare and Preservation of your People and our glorious Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal the 4th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[ Presented by ——— Holbeck, Esq; ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Aisilants and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Tiverton in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Aisilants and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Tiverton in the County of Devon, humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our most cordial Congratulations on the Marriage of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales; an Event which not only adds to your Majesty's domestic Felicity, and promotes the Public Welfare, but gives to us the pleasing Prospect of a Continuance of those inestimable Blessings which we at present possess, and hope long to enjoy, under the illustrious House of Brunswick.

May the Divine Providence long preserve your Majesty, in Health and Prosperity, to reign over a free, affectionate and a grateful People; and may these Virtues which now add a Lustre to the Crown, in the Person of your Majesty, be transmitted to your
