

your Royal Progeny through all succeeding Generations.

Signed, with the Consent and at the Request of the said Inhabitants,

Will. Walker, Mayor.

[Presented by — Fanbawo, Esq; Recorder of the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Steward, Approved Men and Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Andover, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; an Event which, we trust, will augment your Majesty's domestic Happiness, and promote the National Welfare.

We earnestly pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that your Majesty may ever experience the most dutiful Affection in your Royal Family, and in all your Subjects the grateful and sincere Attachment of a free and happy People.

Given under our Seal this 7th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by Benjamin Letbiedlier and William Fellows, Esquires, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Marlborough in the County of Wilts.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the ancient Borough and Town of Marlborough, mindful of the high Honour of having approached your sacred Person, and, ever thankful for your most gracious Condescension to them, unite in the Congratulations of their Fellow-Subjects on the auspicious Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; with Sentiments of most hearty and especial Attachment and Zeal, and, duly sensible of the Blessings they experience from your Majesty's wise and benignant Government, they humbly beg Permission to assure your Majesty, that, regarding those Royal Nuptials as highly conducive to your Happiness and that of your Royal Family, they respect this Event as one that adds to the Joy of all true Britons, and to their Hopes, that England's glorious Constitution, both in Church and State, will be perpetuated to the most distant Posterity, under the Guidance of your Majesty's most august Family.

[Presented by the Earl of Dalkeith.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of the Land-Tax of the County of Dumfries, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest and most sincere Congratulations upon the auspicious Event of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, we take the highest Interest in every Circumstance that concerns your Majesty's Family and your domestic Felicity; and we should therefore have been wanting to ourselves and to the Duty and Respect we owe your Majesty, had we not embraced the earliest Opportunity of expressing our heartfelt Satisfaction upon an Union from which we promise ourselves the happiest Consequences to the Nation, and the greatest Comfort to your Majesty and the Royal Family.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and grateful People, and that your Sceptre may be transmitted to the latest Posterity through a Line of Princes descended from your Majesty, is our most ardent Wish and Prayer.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting.

Ro. Dalzell, Praeses.

Dumfries, May 1, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, the Freeholders and Heretors of the County of Haddington, beg Leave, with Reverence, to approach the Throne of our beloved Sovereign, upon the present joyful Occasion of the Marriage of the Prince of Wales with a Daughter of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We are conscious that the internal Peace, the Security, and, among the surrounding Nations, the unrivalled Prosperity, which the People of your Empire has long enjoyed, have flowed, under God, from the firm, and at the same Time the mild and benign Administration of our just Laws, by your Majesty and your Royal Predecessors of that august Family.

Impressed with the grateful Sense of these Blessings, and; under the Conviction that by this happy Union the fair Prospect of their being continued to us and transmitted to our Posterity is thereby presented by Providence, we now cordially felicitate your Majesty and our Fellow-Subjects upon that auspicious Event.

Relying, Sire, with intire Confidence on your Justice, and on the Wisdom of your Councils, permit us to embrace this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, defend your sacred Person and support our happily balanced Constitution of Government, as established in King, Lords and Commons.

Given at Haddington, this 5th Day of May, 1795.

Robert Hay, Praeses.

[Presented by John Hamilton, Esq; Representative in Parliament of the said County.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Principal Farmers in the District of the Island of Sky, called Troternish, being met for the Purpose of addressing your Majesty, and being deeply impressed with an unalienable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, humbly presume to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to assure your Majesty of our firm Resolution to support the present British Constitution, as vested in your Majesty and in both Houses of Parliament, by endeavouring, to the utmost of our Ability, to prevent
