

Foreign Invasion, and to suppress whatever tends to excite Sedition, or disturb the Peace of Mankind in our Country. By our Exertions, in this District, we have already raised a Company of Volunteers, now pretty well disciplined, and shall to a Man, evince our Zeal for your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, even with our Lives, if ever we should be called upon.

That your Majesty may reign long over a free People, that the Almighty may guard your sacred Person from Danger, that He may bless and preserve the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Principal Farmers of the District of Sky, called Troternish.

Portree, April 24, 1794.

[Presented by Right Hon. Henry Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Banff, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of your Majesty's Burgh of Banff, in Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere and fervent Congratulations on the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We contemplate this auspicious Union with the most cordial Satisfaction, as an Event which diffuses general Joy among your Majesty's faithful People; as an Event which, while it increases the domestic Happiness of your Majesty's illustrious Family, presents an additional Pledge for the Enjoyment of those inestimable Blessings of Protection, Security and genuine Freedom, which we experience under the mild and equal Government of the House of Brunswick.

We gladly embrace every Opportunity of expressing our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, and of renewing the Assurances of our firmest Zeal and Support in maintaining the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown against the Designs of all your Enemies.

That the Blessings of Heaven in their choicest Influence may descend on your Majesty, the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that your Majesty may be long preserved as the Guardian of our precious Constitution; and that a Race of Princes, sprung from your illustrious House, and formed after your Example, may, to remote Ages, sway the British Sceptre, are our anxious Wishes and fervent Prayers.

Signed in Name, in Presence of, and by Appointment of Council.

Council Chamber, Banff,

April 27, 1795.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our Congratulations on the happy Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

We acknowledge with grateful Hearts your Majesty's anxious Care for the Welfare of your Subjects in uniting His Royal Highness to an amiable Princess, whose Virtues cannot fail of securing Happiness to His Royal Highness, and whose exalted Character and known Attachment to this Country, cemented by various Ties, must add Strength to that Constitution under which we boast that we are the Subjects of your Majesty.

May the bright Examples of your Majesty, our most gracious Queen, and Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, promote the Cause of Virtue and Religion in these Kingdoms; and may Their Royal Highnesses be blessed with a virtuous Offspring, who may transmit to Posterity their Love for our envied Constitution.

We implore the Almighty to grant to your Majesty long Life, that you may long enjoy the grateful Satisfaction arising from the happy Marriage of your Son.

We assure your Majesty it is our firm Belief, that your Subjects will, by one uniform Conduct, confirm your Majesty in the Persuasion that you are the beloved Sovereign of a free, loyal and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, on this 2d Day of May, 1795.

[Presented by Sir Harry Fetherston, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere and humble Congratulation on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; an Event which promises to augment the domestic Felicity of your Majesty, and carries the Hopes and Expectations of your faithful Subjects onward to a State of National Happiness to the latest Posterity.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that, in declaring these genuine Sentiments of our affectionate Duty, we express at the same Time our real and fervent Attachment to your most sacred Person, and to the Hereditary and Constitutional Monarchy of these Realms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 4th Day of May, 1795.

[Presented by the Earl of Dorchester, High Steward of the Corporation of Dorchester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Manneker, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most unfeigned
