

feigned Congratulations on the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Sensible that to your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government we owe the Enjoyment of those Blessings of National Liberty and individual Security, for which these Kingdoms are so eminently distinguished, we cannot but feel interested in every Event which has a Tendency to enlarge the domestic Felicity and increase the Satisfactions of the Father of his People.

May the decisive Proof before us, of that Attention to the Welfare of your Subjects, which never ceases to actuate your Majesty's Breast, be remunerated with a long Succession of Blessings on yourself and your Royal House; and may the Splendor of those Virtues, which have endeared to an affectionate People the Monarch and the Man, descend on your illustrious Race through all succeeding Generations.

Signed on Behalf of a Meeting of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Manchester.

Tho. Richardson, Borough-Recve, Chairman.

[Presented by Thomas Richardson and — Thackeray, Esqrs.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Councilmen of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpool, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common-Councilmen of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpool, in Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to embrace the earliest Opportunity of offering to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Believe us, Sir, we feel the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude to your Majesty for the uniform and steady Regard which your Majesty has invariably shewn for the future Welfare of your People, and we cannot but be deeply interested in an Event which promises to transmit the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign to our latest Posterity.

Permit us to express to your Majesty our sincere and ardent Prayers that your Majesty may long be preferred to your faithful and loyal Subjects, and that this joyful and auspicious Union may prove the happy Means of encreasing the domestic Comfort of your august Family, and of securing to these Kingdoms an uninterrupted Possession of that Liberty, Social Order and Freedom which we have hitherto enjoyed under your illustrious House.

Given under our Common Seal this 12th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by Owen Salisbury Breveton, Esq; Recorder, and Major Gen. Farleton, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaster, in Common Hall assembled, urged by the most faithful Attacament to your illustrious Family, which hath at all Times so zealously asserted the sacred Principles of our Constitution, and transmitted to us inviolate the Inheritance of well-regulated and practical Freedom, mingle with a pure and affectionate Homage our Tribute of Gratitude with the general Joy for the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick. We humbly implore Divine Providence that it may be to your Majesty an additional Source of domestic Happiness, and the Means of continuing to ourselves and our Posterity the Succession of a Line so justly entitled to our Confidence and Allegiance.

Given under our Common Seal the 12th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness, beg Leave to offer our most cordial Congratulations on the auspicious Nuptials of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the House of Brunswick, an Event which cannot fail to diffuse universal Joy and Satisfaction among your Majesty's faithful Subjects, as it still farther secures to them and their Posterity a Continuance of those Blessings which they have so long enjoyed under the mild and equal Government of the illustrious House of Hanover.

We sincerely and earnestly pray, that your Majesty may have the Felicity to see the Hopes of your People realized in the happy Consequences of this propitious Event, and that after a long and prosperous Reign your Majesty may transmit the Crown of these Realms with undiminished Lustre to a continued Series of Princes inheriting those Virtues which command the Love and Affection of your loyal Subjects of the County of Caithness.

Signed in our Presence and by our Appointment, at the Borough of Wick, the 30th Day of April, 1795, by Caithness, Prefes.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department.]
