

St. James's, May 16.

THE following Addresse have been presented to the Queen; which Addresse Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Chichester, crave Permission to approach your Royal Presence with our most fervent Congratulations on the Marriage of your august Son the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We beg Leave to express the Joy we feel at this Event, as being the certain Means of increasing the Happiness of your Majesty and your Royal Family, and insuring our National Prosperity.

We are perfectly sensible of the many Virtues which adorn this illustrious Princess; yet we feel a stronger Confidence in the Hope we entertain of the Blessings we shall experience from the Exercise of those Virtues, when we reflect that so bright an Example is afforded Her Royal Highness in the Person of your Majesty.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of our said City to be hereunto affixed the 12th Day of May, in the 35th Year of His Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Portland.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Banff, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Banff, in Council assembled, intreat Permission to present our humble Congratulations to your Majesty on the happy Event of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Princess of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We rejoice to behold your Majesty's maternal Solitude for the Prince of Wales rewarded by his Alliance with an illustrious Princess, whose amiable Qualities, while they dignify and adorn her exalted Rank, are calculated to yield an Increase of Happiness to His Royal Highness, and must attract the Love and the Respect of a great Nation.

It is our Boast and Happiness, that your Majesty, seated on that Eminence which commands Observation, has ever been truly exemplary in the most endearing and estimable Virtues. May their benignant Influence be long and extensively felt!

Blessed with every domestic Comfort, with every earthly Felicity, may your Majesty, to a far distant Period of Time, continue to live in the Hearts of an affectionate and grateful People.

Signed in Name, in Presence of, and by Appointment of Council.

Geo. McKilligin, Provost.

Council Chamber, Banff,

April 27, 1795.

Carlton House, May 16.

THE following Addresse have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; which Addresse His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations on the interesting Occasion of your Royal Highness's Nuptials with Her Serene Highness the Princess of Brunswick, whose amiable Virtues and engaging Accomplishments must ensure every domestic Felicity.

From our happy Experience of your Royal Highness's many Excellences, we look forward with the most grateful Satisfaction to the Blessings promised to the British Nation by such an auspicious Union.

In expressing our most ardent Zeal for the Welfare of your Royal Highness and your illustrious Consort, we cannot offer a greater Proof of the Extent of our Wishes than in praying that your Royal Highnesses may enjoy a Degree of Happiness equal to that so long and fully experienced by our Most Gracious Sovereign and beloved Queen.

Given under our Common Seal this 29th Day of April, in the Thirty-fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord 1795.

By Order,

John Travis, Town Clerk and Deputy Recorder.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Phipps.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your Royal Highness

TO receive the most respectful Congratulations of the Mayor and Burgeses of the ancient Borough and Town of Marlborough, on the Solemnization of your Royal Highness's Nuptials; and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Royal Highness, that none of our Fellow Subjects rejoice more sincerely than we do in this happy Event, which we heartily desire may be attended with every Felicity to your Royal Highness, and continue even to the latest Posterity the Blessing of our excellent Constitution, under the Auspices of the august House of Brunswick, already endeared to every honest-hearted Briton in the best of Sovereigns.

[Presented by the Earl of Dalkeith, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]
