AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th of May, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for preventing certain Instruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United States of America; and to give to His Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the said United States;" which said Act has been continued by several subsequent Acts until the 5th Day of April, 1795. And whereas by an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to extend the Powers of an Act, made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for giving His Majesty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the United States of America, to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, with respect to certain Articles therein mentioned," the Powers given by the said recited Act were extended to the Trade and Intercourse between this Kingdom and the British Colonies and Plantations in America, so far as the same might relate to Iron, Hemp and Sailcloth, and other Articles of the Produce of any Place bordering on the Baltic, which might be exported from this Kingdom; which last mentioned Act has also by several subsequent Acts been continued until the said 5th Day of April, 1795.

And whereas by another Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to continue the Laws now in Force for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, so far as the same relate to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the Inhabitants of the Countries belonging to the said United States," it is declared to be expedient, that the said Act of the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, so far only as the same extends to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the People and Territories belonging to the United States of America, and also that the said Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, should be further continued and be in Force; and it is thereby enacted, that the said Acts shall continue and be in Force until the 5th Day of April, 1796, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament:

His Majesty doth thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and declare, That any Unmanufactured Goods and Merchandizes, the Importation of which into this Kingdom

Kingdom is not prohibited by Law (except Tobacco, for which Provision is herein after made, and except Oil made from Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale-Fins and Spermaceti) and any Pig Iron, Bar Iron, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Rosin, Pot-Ash, Pearl-Ash, Indico, Masts, Yards and Bowsprits, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, may be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, either in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, or in Ships built in the Countries belonging to the United States of America, or any of them, or in Ships taken by any of the Ships or Vessels of War belonging to the Government, or any of the Inhabitants of the said United States, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty of the said United States (of which Condemnation due Proof shall be given) and owned by the Subjects of the said United States, or any of, them, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least are Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and may be entered and landed in any Port of this Kingdom, upon Payment of such Duties as the like Sorts of Goods or Merchandize are or may be subject and liable to if imported in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, from any British Island or Plantation in America, notwithstanding such Goods or Merchandize, or the Ships in which the same may be brought, may not be accompanied with the Certificates or other Documents heretofore required by Law.

And it is further ordered, that all other Goods and Merchandize, not herein before enumerated or described, the Importation of which into this Kingdom is not prohibited by Law, (except Snuff, for which Provision is herein after made) and also Oil made from Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale-Fins and Spermaceti, being the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, may be imported from thence into this Kingdom in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as herein before required, upon Payment of such Duties of Customs and Excise as are payable on the like Goods and Merchandize upon their Importation into this Kingdom from Countries not under the Dominion of His Majesty, according to the Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. annexed to an Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in Lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies remaining in the Exchequer, for the Payment of Annuities on Livets, to the Reduction of the National Debt;" or by any other Laws in Force passed subsequent to the said Act, touching the Duties contained in the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F.; and in Cases where different Duties are imposed upon the like Goods imported from different Countries not under the Dominion of His Majesty, then that such Goods shall be imported upon the lowest Duties which by the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. are required to be paid on the Importation of any such Goods from any European Country not under the Dominion of His Majesty.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that all such Goods and Merchandize shall be intitled to the same Drawbacks as are allowed upon the Exportation of the like Goods and Merchandize when exported from this Kingdom, according to the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. annexed to the before mentioned Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or according to any other Law in Force, passed subsequent to the said Act, touching Drawbacks. And it is hereby further ordered, that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods and Merchandize exported from this Kingdom to the Territories of the said United States, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Goods or Merchandize to any of the Islands, Plantations, or Colonies, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain in America. And it is hereby further ordered, that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks upon the Exportation of any Sort of Foreign Hemp or Foreign Iron exported from this Kingdom into any British Colony or Plantation in America, or into the Territories of the United States of America, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Sort of Hemp or Iron to other Foreign Parts; and all such Drawbacks and Bounties respectively shall be allowed and paid in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as such Drawbacks and Bounties are allowed and paid, or are subject and liable to by Law; provided always, and His Majesty is further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Importation of Rice and other Articles, without Payment of any Duty whatever, by virtue of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation, and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision for a limited Time, without Payment of Duty," and in the Manner in the said Act mentioned.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, may be imported in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as herein before required, upon Payment of the same Duties as Tobacco, imported by British Subjects from any British Colony or Plantation, is or may hereafter be subject to; and that any Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of any of the said Territories, may be imported in Manner before mentioned, upon Payment of such Duties as Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of Europe, imported from Europe, is or hereafter may be subject to, and may be warehoused and again exported; subject respectively nevertheless to all and singular the Regulations of an Act made and passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof:" And another Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof:" And also another Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to prevent other Ships than those laden with Tobacco from mooring and discharging their Lading at the Places appointed by an Act made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof; to prohibit the Exportation of damaged or mean Tobacco; and for permitting the Importation of Tobacco and Snuff into the Port of Newcastle upon Tyne."

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, That in case and as often as Rice shall not be allowed, by the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, to be imported without Payment of any Duty, any Rice, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, which shall be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in Manner above-mentioned, may, upon the Importer paying down, in ready Money, the Duty of Eight-pence the Hundred Weight, being Part of the Duties now payable on the Importation of Rice, be landed and warehoused (except as hereinafter excepted) under His Majesty's Locks, in such Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, upon the Importer's own Bond for Payment of the Remainder of the Duties due and payable for such Rice, within Eighteen Months, according to the net Weight and Quantity of such Rice at the Time it shall be so landed: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that upon the Importation of any such Rice into the Ports of London, Bristol, Portsmouth, Cowes, Liverpool, Lancaster, Falmouth, Pool, Whitehaven, Hull, Greenock, and Port Glasgow, or either of them, in the Manner herein before expressed, the Importer shall be at Liberty to enter and land the same without Payment of any Duty whatever; in which Case such Rice shall be warehoused, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and the Proprietors, in such Warehouse or Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and any Three or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; every Expence attending which Warehousing shall be borne by the said Proprietors: And that such Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their known Agent, shall from Time to Time, at all reasonable Hours, as Occasion may require, have free Access to such Warehouses, in the Presence of some proper Officer of the Customs, for the Purpose of screening and shifting the Rice, to prevent it's receiving Damage. And that if any Rice, which shall be so imported from the Territories of the said United States into any of the Ports above-mentioned respectively, and warehoused as aforesaid, shall be taken out of the Warehouses wherein the same shall be secured, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and the Proprietors as aforesaid, for Home Consumption, the full Duties, due and payable by Law upon the Importation of such Rice into this Kingdom for Home Consumption, shall, previously to it's being taken out of such Warehouses, be paid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Ports where such Rice shall be so warehoused; but that such Proprietor, if he intends to export such Rice, shall have Liberty to export the same from such Warehouses respectively, under the usual Regulations, without Payment of any Duty whatever: Provided that the Exportation of any such Rice, hereafter to be warehoused, be made within the said Space of Eighteen Months; and if not within that Period, that the full Duties, payable by Law upon the Importation of such Rice, be paid for the same, and not be afterwards drawn back: And that if any Rice which shall have been imported into any Port of

of this Kingdom, not herein before specially named, and shall have been warehoused upon the Importer's Bond, in Manner aforesaid, shall, within the Time herein before mentioned, be taken out of the Warehouse wherein it shall have been so secured, to be exported directly from thence, the Bond entered into for the Payment of the said Duties thereon shall be discharged and cancelled by Debenture or Debentures, made out and passed in the usual Manner, for the Quantity or Quantities of Rice duly exported. And if any Rice imported into any Port of this Kingdom, not herein before specially named, and warehoused in Manner aforesaid, shall be taken out of any such Warehouse for Home Consumption, the Remainder of the Duties, due and payable by Law, shall, previously to it's being taken out of such Warehouse, be paid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Port where such Rice shall be so warehoused; and that such Payment shall be made, and the Warehouse cleared for such Rice hereafter to be warehoused, within the said Space of Eighteen Months, otherwise the same shall and may be sold for the Duties, in like Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as any other Goods are now directed by Law to be sold for the Duties.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

St. James's, June 2.

THE following Address having been transmitted by the Right Honorable Field-Marshal Conway to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the States of the Island of Jersey, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick. Descendants of Men, ever distinguished for their Attachment to the Persons of their Sovereigns, we feel those Sentiments of hereditary Loyalty still heightened by the Gratitude we owe to your Majesty for the Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Reign: And we most cordially rejoice at an Event so well calculated to encrease your Majesty's domestic Happiness, and to secure unto us a Succession of Princes from the illustrious House of Brunswick, since whose Accession to the British Throne, the Empire has flourished in a Degree unknown to former Ages.

Not measuring the Value of these Expressions of your Subjects of this Island by it's small Extent of Territory, but by the Fervency of the Zeal which dictates them, your Majesty will, we trust, deign to receive this congratulatory Address with your usual Goodness and Condescension. However this Country be exceeded in Magnitude by other Parts of your Dominions, we shall ever make it our humble Boast to yield to none in heartfelt Wishes for your Majesty's Happiness and Prosperity.

By Order of the States,

Phil. De Carteret, Greffier.

Island of Jersey, May 11, 1795.

Carlton House, June 2.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Devon, beseech your Royal Highness to accept our warmest Congratulations on your Nuptials with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We beg Leave to assure your Royal Highness, that we sincerely participate in the general Joy excited on this Occasion, not doubting but it is an Event which will prove an Addition of domestic Felicity to your Royal Family, and (by extending the mild and paternal Government of the illustrious House of Brunswick over a loyal and affectionate People) increase the National Welfare and Security.

Signed, in the Name, and at the Request of the County of Devon, Philip Morfhead, Sheriff.

[Presented by Colonel Rolle, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To His Royal Highness GEORGE AUGUSTUS Prince of WALES.

Most Gracious Prince,

PERMIT us, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, to offer our unfeigned Congratulations upon the Nuptials of your Royal Highness; an Event grateful in the highest Degree to the whole Nation, and particularly so to us, from whose Country your Royal Highness bears your first Title. May your Royal Highness and your amiable Consort enjoy every Happiness and Blessing that Heaven can shower down; and may the illustrious House of Brunswick be continued to the latest Posterity through your Royal Persons, that a Race of Sovereigns may never be wanting to sway the British Sceptre with that Valour, Equity and Moderation, which have so eminently distinguished your Royal Predecessors.

John Wynne, High Sheriff.

[Presented by Robert Watkin Wynne, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, beg Leave respectfully to approach your Royal Highness with our warmest Congratulations on your Marriage with an amiable Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Zealously attached to our free and happy Constitution in Church and State, we most cordially rejoice joice in an Event, which, while it brings to your Highness so great an Accession of domestic Happiness, affords to the British Empire an additional Security for the Continuance of the many and important Blessings it has so long enjoyed under the mild and auspicious Government of the august House of Hanover.

That your Royal Highness and your amiable Consort may be adorned with all those Virtues which give true Dignity and Lustre to your exalted Station; that Divine Providence may bestow upon you a large Portion of Prosperity and Glory, and bless you with a Race of Princes to sway the Sceptre of these Realms over a free, loyal and happy People to latest Posterity, and that after a long Enjoyment of earthly Blessings, you may be received into the Mansions of eternal Felicity, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Royal Highness,
Your Royal Highness's most faithful, most obedient, and most humble Servants,
The Ministers and Elders, met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Meek, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 23, 1795.

[Presented by the Earl of Leven.]

To Their Royal Highnesses the PRINCE and PRINCESS of WALES,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Corporation of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, in Common Council assembled.

WE, the Mayor and Corporation of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Royal Highnesses on the late happy Event of your Nuptials, which will not only contribute to the Happiness of your Royal Highnesses and Family, but to the Satisfaction of the Kingdom in general.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation the 5th Day of May, 1795.

[Presented by the Marquis of Worcester.]

To the PRINCE of WALES.

The humble Address of the University of Glasgow.
May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Vice-Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculties, Professors and Masters of the University of Glasgow, in Senate assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to offer our most sincere and cordial Congratulation on the auspicious Event of your Marriage to an illustrious Princess nearly connected with you by Birth, and for that Reason, as well as for Her Royal Highness's amiable Qualities and great personal Merit and Accomplishments, most acceptable to these Nations.

Whatever tends to the Stability of the Throne, the personal Happiness of your Royal Highness, and to the Security of our excellent Constitution, as this happy Event most evidently does, must be highly pleasing to us, in common with all His Majesty's loyal Subjects.

That your Royal Highness may long live in the Enjoyment of all private and publick Felicity, and that there may never be wanting a Prince of your illustrious House to sway the Sceptre of these Realms, and to reign in the Hearts of a free, a happy and a loyal People, is our most sincere and fervent Prayer.

Done in Senate House this 13th of May, 1795, and signed in our Name and by our Appointment, by Arch. Davidson, Vice-Chancellor.

Pat. Wilson, Cler. Sen.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Montrose, Chancellor of the University.]

Carlton House, June 2.

THE following Address has been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales; which Address Her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To Her Royal Highness the PRINCESS of WALES.

Most Gracious Princess,

PERMIT us, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, to offer our unfeigned Congratulations upon the Nuptials of your Royal Highness; an Event grateful in the highest Degree to the whole Nation, and particularly so to us, from whose Country your Royal Highness bears your first Title. The Marriage of our Prince must ever have been an Object extremely agreeable to us, but more particularly so, when we see him united to an amiable Princess of the House of Brunswick, under whose Dominion this Kingdom has, during the present Century, enjoyed the most uninterrupted Felicity.

John Wynne, High Sheriff.

General Post-Office, May 20, 1795.

THERE will be Daily Attendance in the Foreign Department of this Office, from the Hour of Eleven in the Forenoon to the Hour of Three in the Afternoon, to put in Execution an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty's Postmaster General to open and return certain Letters contained in the Mails made up at the General Post-Office in London, for the United Provinces, on the 13th, 16th and 20th Days of January, 1795, and now remaining in the said General Post-Office."

An Abstract of the Act, and Forms of the Oaths required to be taken, may be had at this Office.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, May 6, 1795.

By an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for further regulating the sending and receiving Letters free from the Duty of Postage; for allowing Non-commissioned Officers, Seamen, and Private Men, in the Navy and Army, whilst on Service, to send and receive Letters at a low Rate of Postage; and for permitting Patterns and Samples of Goods to be transmitted by the Post at an easier Rate than is now allowed by Law,"

No Letter or Packet whatsoever, sent by the Post within Great Britain, directed by or to any Member of either House of Parliament of Great Britain, shall, from and after the 5th Instant, be exempted from the Duty of Postage, if such Letter or Package shall exceed One Ounce in Weight.

No Letter or Packet directed by any such Member, shall be exempted from the Postage, unless the Member whose Name shall be indorsed thereon, shall actually be in the Post-Town into the Post-Office of which every such Letter or Packet shall be put, or within the Limits of the Delivery of Letters for such Post-Town, or within Twenty Miles of such Post-Town, on the Day, or on the Day before the Day on which such Letter or Packet shall be put into the Post-Office.

No such Member shall be entitled or allowed to send by the Post, free from Postage, superscribed or directed by him, more than Ten Letters in any One Day, nor to receive by the Post, free from Postage, more than Fifteen Letters directed to him in any One Day.

Provided, that whenever the Number of Letters or Packets, not weighing more than One Ounce each, sent or received by any such Member in any One Day, shall exceed the Number exempted by the said Act from Postage, and the Rate of Postage upon any of them shall differ, then such of the said Letters or Packets as would be chargeable with a higher Rate of Postage than the Remainder, shall be included in the Number so exempted, in Preference to any which would be chargeable with a lower Rate of Postage, and the Remainder shall be chargeable with the several Rates of Postage respectively to which such Letters would now by Law be chargeable, if sent or received by any Persons not entitled to send or receive Letters or Packets free from Postage.

The several Persons who by Law are authorized in Right of their Offices and Employments to send and receive Letters free from Postage, and their Successors in such Offices and Employments, may, during their Continuance in such Offices and Employments, send and receive Letters and Packets, free from Postage, as they now send and receive the same.

No printed Votes or Proceedings in Parliament, or printed Newspapers sent without Covers, or in Covers open at the Sides, which shall be signed on the Outside thereof by the Hand of any Member of Parliament as heretofore practised, or which shall be directed to any such Member at any Place whereof he shall have given Notice in Writing to the Postmaster-General, or his Deputy, shall be charged with Postage.

No single Letter sent by the Post from any Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private employed in His Majesty's Navy, Army, Militia, Fencible Regiments, Artillery or Marines, shall, whilst such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private shall be employed on His Majesty's Service, and not otherwise, be charged with an higher Rate of Postage than the Sum of One Penny for the Conveyance of each such Letter, such Postage to be paid at the Time of putting the same into the Post-Office of the Town or Place from whence such Letter is intended to be sent by the Post.

Provided, that no such Letter shall be exempted from Postage unless there shall be written thereon in the Hand-Writing of and signed by the Commanding Officer for the Time being of the Ship or Vessel, or of the Corps, Regiment, or Detachment to which such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private shall belong, the Name of such Commanding Officer, and of the Ship, Vessel, Corps, Regiment or Detachment commanded by him.

No single Letter, directed to any such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private, upon his own private Concerns, only whilst such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private shall be employed on His Majesty's Service, and not otherwise, shall be charged with an higher Rate of Postage than One Penny for each such Letter, which Penny shall be paid at the Time of the Delivery thereof, Provided, that no such Letter shall be exempted from the Rates of Postage chargeable upon Letters, unless every such Letter shall be directed to such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private, specifying the Ship, Vessel, Regiment, Troop, Corps, Company, or Detachment to which he may belong: And provided also that it shall not be lawful for the Deputy Postmaster of the Town or Place to which such Letter shall be sent to be delivered, to deliver such Letter to any Person, except to the Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private to whom such Letter shall be directed, or to any Person appointed to receive the same by the Commanding Officer of the Ship, &c. to which the Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private to whom such Letter shall be directed shall belong.

Every Packet or Cover containing therein, or having affixed thereto, one or more Paper or Papers, with Patterns, or one or more Pattern or Patterns of Cloth, Silk, Stuff, or other Goods, or one or more Sample or Samples of any other Sort of Thing, not exceeding together one Ounce in Weight, shall be charged with no higher Rate of Postage than as a single Letter; so as every such Packet or Cover shall be sent open at the Sides, and without any Letter or Writing in, upon, or with such Packet or Cover, other than the Name or Names of the Person or Persons sending the same, and the Place or Places of his or their Abode, and the Prices of the Articles contained therein, or affixed thereto.

The Act may be seen at every Post-Office.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
ANTHONY TODD, Sec.

HAIR POWDER TAX.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, May 5, 1795.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties, do, in pursuance of "An Act for granting to His Majesty a Duty on Certificates issued for using Hair Powder," which commences on the 6th Day of May instant, hereby give Notice to every Person using or wearing Hair Powder, that they have appointed the following Offices or Places for granting such Certificates, viz.

The Head Office in Somerset-Place, for Persons residing in the Parish of St. Mary-le-Strand, St. Clement Danes, St. Paul, Covent-Garden, St. Giles in the Fields, St. George, Bloomsbury, the Liberty of the Rolls, Lincoln's-Inn, and the Temple.

City District, at No. 50, Lombard-Street, London, for Persons residing within the City of London and the Liberty of St. Martin le Grand.

For the District of the Tower Hamlets, Liberties and Precincts thereof, with Bethnal-Green, and Parts adjacent, at No. 35, Wellclose-Square.

For the Westminster District, including the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, St. Margaret, St. John, St. James, St. Ann, Mary-le-Bone, St. George, Hanover-Square, and Paddington, at No. 3, Terrace, Spring-Garden, and No. 296, Oxford-Street, near Bond-Street.

For the Clerkenwell District, the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, at the Sessions House on Clerkenwell-Green, for Persons residing in the Parishes of St. James and St. John, Clerkenwell, St. Luke, St. Leonard, Shoreditch, the Liberty of Glasfhouse-Yard, St. Andrew, Holborn, St. George the Martyr, Queen-Square, St. Sepulchre, St. Pancras, and Islington.

And the Distributor of Stamps for the adjacent Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent and Surry, have appointed an Office in most of the Towns or large Villages, in those Districts, for the Convenience of Persons residing beyond the said Limits, and within Ten Miles of the Head-Office in Somerset-Place.

N. B. On some visible Part of the Front of those Offices, the Words OFFICE APPOINTED TO GRANT HAIR POWDER CERTIFICATES will be painted for general Information.

At all which Offices or Places the Persons applying for the said Certificates will be furnished, gratis, with the proper printed Form of the Entry, required by the Act, to be filled up in Writing, and delivered in, previously to the issuing of any Certificates.

And the Commissioners do hereby give further Notice, that they have duly authorized the Head Distributors of Stamps in the different Counties of the Kingdom to execute this Business by themselves and their Deputies: The former of whom the Commissioners have directed to publickly advertise, as early as possible, an Account of the Offices and Places in their respective Districts, for the said Purpose, in the Newspapers usually circulated in the Neighbourhood thereof, with the Names of the Deputies the said Head Distributors have appointed, to superintend the same.

And, to prevent Mistakes, the Commissioners think it right to apprise the Publick, that a Duty of ONE POUND AND ONE SHILLING ONLY is to be paid for each Certificate; which Sum will be expressed by a Stamp on each Certificate; and that NO MORE IS TO BE DEMANDED OF ANY PERSON upon taking out a Certificate for using or wearing of Hair Powder, upon any Pretence whatever, except where there are more than Two unmarried Daughters in a Family; in which Case a double Certificate, stamped with Two Stamps of One Pound One Shilling each, is required to be taken out.

Daily Attendance will be given at the above Offices, till further Notice, from Ten o'Clock till Three.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Sec.

N. B. IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE Notices, the Commissioners think it expedient to caution the Public, that every Person who, since the 5th Day of May instant, has worn Hair Powder, IS LIABLE TO THE DUTY OF ONE GUINEA, and required to take out a stamped Certificate of that Value; at the Expiration of one Month from that Day, a PENALTY of Twenty Pounds will attach upon every Person who shall use and wear Hair Powder, without taking out a Certificate for the same; and that if Informations are then tendered against Offenders, the Commissioners cannot, consistently with their Duty, refuse to receive them, and to direct Prosecutions accordingly.

To prevent which, and that Persons may be accommodated with the least Inconvenience and Delay, it is earnestly recommended to such as require Certificates, to provide themselves therewith immediately, by applying at such of the Offices above mentioned as are respectively appointed for Persons residing within those different Districts; and if the Parties applying could make it convenient, previously to furnish themselves with the Forms of Entry, which are issued, gratis, at the said Offices, and deliver them in properly filled up, it is presumed that it would greatly facilitate the Business of taking out Certificates, by shortening the Time of Waiting, and preventing that Embarrassment, which, from the numerous Applications that may be expected to be made for them towards the Close of the Month, will otherwise unavoidably occur.

APPRENTICE DUTY INDEMNITY.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, May 16, 1795.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for Managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, That by a Clause in an Act of the present Session of Parliament, it is enacted, for the Relief of all Persons who have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given, paid or contracted for, with Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, and also who have omitted to insert and write in Words at Length in Indentures or other Writings relating to the Service of any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or contracted for, with or in Addition to every such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, that, upon Payment of double the Rates and Duties upon the Monies, or such Part of the Monies, so omitted or neglected to be paid, and also so omitted to be inserted and written in such Indenture or Writing, on or before the 19th Day of December next, to the proper Officer, and tendering the same to be stamped at this Office, every such Indenture or other Writing shall be good and valid, and the Persons so offending be excused from any Penalty incurred by the Omission thereof; except those against whom any Prosecution shall be now depending.
