P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the malignant and contagious Fever, of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since manifested itself at Baltimore in the State of Maryland, has ceased: His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine, laid by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the 12th Day of November, 1794, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods and Merchandize, now arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive from Baltimore, or any other Port or Place in the said State of Maryland, in the United States of America, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done, in case such Order of the 12th Day of November, 1794, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that the Masters or other Persons, having Charge of such Ships or Vessels respectively, do first make Oath, before the Custom-House Officer or Chief Magistrate as the Places respectively at which such respective Ships or Vessels have arrived, or shall arrive, that their Crews are free from all Infection.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of June, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or

Officers

Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirtieth Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant June, to the Thirty-fifth Day of August next inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Admiralty-Office June 30.

LETTERS, of which the following are Extracts and Copies, have been received at this Office from Vice-Admiral Caldwell.

Ocean Transport, St. Pierre, Martinique,
S I R, April 17, 1795.

IN my Letter of the 15th of March I informed you of the Infurrection at Grenada, and that Orders were sent to Barbadoes to make Detachments from thence, immediately on the Arrival of the Convoy, which took Place accordingly; and I am now extremely concerned to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, of our Failure in our Attempt, on the 8th Instant, to dislodge the Enemy from an Eminence on which they had taken Post; for the Particulars of which I beg to refer you to the inclosed Copies of Letters from Captains Rogers and Watkins; and for the Situation of the Colony to the former's subsequent Letter by Colonel Webster.

Captain Sawyer has taken a Sloop under St. Lucia, with Arms, Ammunition and Provisions from Guadaloupe; and Captain Watkins acquaints me he has captured a Privateer and a Schooner with Arms and Ammunition, under Spanish Colours.

(Signed) BEN. CALDWELL.

To the Secretary of the Admiralty.

S I R, Quebec, Grenada, April 9, 1795.

I Was in great Hopes, every Day ever since the Arrival of the Two Regiments under Colonel Campbell, to have announced to you the total Subjugation of the French and Rebels in this Island; but such vast Quantities of Rain has constantly been falling until Yesterday Morning as to preclude the Possibility of carrying on any Military Operations in the mountainous Part of this Island. It having been judged absolutely necessary to assault the Enemy's Camp the first favorable Moment; and willing to give every Assistance in my Power from the Navy, to insure, if possible, Success, Captain Watkins, of the Resource, became a willing Volunteer on the Occasion. A Corps of 150 Men was selected by him from the Resource, and Volunteers from the Transports, with whom Captain Browell served as a Volontier. Inclosed I send you Captain Watkins's Letter, to which I beg Leave to refer you for the Particulars of our Misfortune. I have not yet seen a Return from the Army, though I understand the Loss amounts to, in killed and wounded, 100. Every Tongue is loud in Praise of the gallant Conduct of Captain Watkins in this unfortunate Affair; and I want Words to express a just Sense of my Obligations to him for the great Zeal and Exertion he has so eminently displayed ever since his Arrival here. Captain Browell's Behaviour has been highly meritorious, and the Service is much indebted to his Exertions and Example. I beg Leave to assure you no Relaxation of Exertions with the Navy will take Place.

(Signed)

J. ROGERS.

To Vice-Admiral Caldwell.

Ocean Transport, St. Pierre, Martinique,
S I R, April 19, 1795.

WITH much Satisfaction I inclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Sawyer, giving an Account of a successful Expedition at St. Lucia; and hope, before the Packet leaves St. Kitt's, to send another Account of that Colony being restored to Peace, which the General Sir John Vaughan and myself conceive will have a very good Effect at St. Vincent's and Grenada.

(Signed)

BEN. CALDWELL.

To the Secretary of the Admiralty.

Blanche, Carenage, St. Lucia,
S I R, April 18, 1795.

I Beg to acquaint you, that I have just arrived at this Place (for the Purpose of returning their Boats to the Transports) from Vieux Fort, which Town and its Vicinity, I have the Satisfaction to inform you, the Enemy abandoned the Day before Yesterday, and which was immediately taken Possession of by Brigadier-General Stewart and His Majesty's Troops. I forthwith got under Weigh from the Place where we had disembarked the Troops, and came to an Anchor off the Town of Vieux Fort, where I found an empty French Sloop and Schooner, and an American Brig, partly loaded with Produce.

My Stay at Vieux Fort, after the Capture of the Place, was not sufficient to enable me to transmit to you an Account of the Stores and Ammunition found there; but I understand that there was in the Church and other large Buildings a considerable Quantity

Quantity of Provisions and some Produce. I have the Pleasure to inform you that Yesterday, in my Way here, I had the good Fortune to capture a small Privateer, which, for the present, I use for a Tender. I am now getting under Weigh to return to Vieux Fort, for the Purpose of co-operating with the Brigadier-General in his future Plans; and I hope very shortly to be able to inform you that Souffriere, which is the principal Post of the Enemy, is once more reduced to His Majesty's Authority, and that Peace and Tranquillity are again restored to this Colony.

(Signed) C. SAWYER.

To Vice-Admiral Caldwell.

Ocean Transport, St. Pierre, Martinique,
S I R, April 25, 1795.

IN my Letter of the 19th Instant, inclosing a Copy of a Letter from Captain Sawyer, relating a successful Expedition at St. Lucia, I mentioned my Hopes that the next Account would be that the Colony was restored to Peace, &c. but have now the unpleasing Task to request you will lay before my Lord's Commissioners of the Admiralty the inclosed Copy of a Letter from Captain Sawyer, received this Morning, giving an Account of our having failed in the Expedition against Souffriere, and that General Stewart was returning to Vieux Fort. We have no other Account than Captain Sawyer's Letter, which was brought by Lieutenant Barrett, who understood our Loss was about Two Hundred killed and wounded.

(Signed) BEN. CALDWELL.

To the Secretary of the Admiralty.

Blanche, Chaiseul, St. Lucia,
S I R, April 23, 1795.

IT is with much Concern I relate to you that the Enemy, with a Force, infinitely superior to any Brigadier-General Stewart imagined they could collect, attacked the Troops under his Command Yesterday, on their March to Souffriere, and, after an Engagement which lasted Seven Hours, compelled them to retreat to this Place. I am sorry to observe our Loss has been very considerable.

We are now embarking the Troops, with which the General proposes to return to Vieux Fort, which Place he thinks his present Force equal to maintain.

As Negroes could not be procured to drag the Cannon, the General applied to me for Men to assist the Soldiers in that fatiguing Duty. I accordingly sent Lieutenant Barrett on Shore, with Twenty Seamen and Ten Marines, for that Purpose. I feel it my Duty to inform you, Sir, that the General expresses, in the strongest Terms, his Approbation of Lieutenant Barrett's Conduct in this Instance, as also that of the Seamen and Marines under his Command.

(Signed) C. SAWYER.

A Letter from General the Honorable Sir John Vaughan, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces in the Leeward Islands, dated Martinico, May 11, 1795, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

I Have the Honor to inclose to you an Extract of a Letter which I have this Morning received from Governor Seton. It will give you full Information as to the present State of Affairs in that Island.

I also inclose Brigadier-General Stewart's Return of the Killed and Wounded in the late Actions at St. Lucia, which was not received when my last Dispatches were closed.

Extract of a Letter from Governor Seton to Sir John Vaughan, dated St. Vincent, May 8, 1795.

THE Enemy having appeared Yesterday on the Height above Calliaqua, to the Number of Seven or Eight Hundred, I requested Captain Carpenter, with His Majesty's Ship Alarm, to move round to Calliaqua Bay, which he immediately complied with. They had sent Two insulting Messages to Captain Molesworth, who commanded the Party there, requiring him to surrender at Discretion. Being informed that they had, within these few Days, been considerably reinforced from Guadaloupe, and suspecting, from their Number and apparent Confidence, that some Attempt would be made against the Town of Kington, I sent a Party, under Captain Hall of the 46th Regiment, consisting of One Subaltern and Thirty-three Rank and File of that Regiment, Forty Militia, and Forty of the Corps of Rangers, with Five of the Royal Artillery, and a Fourteen-Pound Field-Piece, to take Possession of Dorsetshire Hill Yesterday Forenoon. About One o'Clock this Morning they were attacked by a Body of about Three Hundred French and Charibs: Our Party made a vigorous Resistance, but, owing to the Enemy's great Superiority in Numbers, they were obliged to retreat to the Post on Sion Hill, leaving the Field-Piece spiked. Knowing that the Town must be inevitably destroyed by the Enemy if they kept Possession of that Hill, I thought it necessary to use every Exertion to dislodge them, and concluding that no Time was to be lost in attempting it, I immediately detached Sixty Rank and File of the 46th Regiment, under the Command of Captain Forster, One Hundred of the Corps of Rangers, and Forty Militia, the Whole under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Seton of the Rangers, to attack the Enemy at Day-Break. They had, with great Dexterity, found Means to clear the Field-Piece of the Spike during the short Time they had it in their Possession, and had been joined by upwards of One Hundred French and Charibs immediately after Captain Hall's Party retreated: Our Troops attacked them with great Spirit at the Time appointed; and though they were unexpectedly annoyed by several Discharges of Grape Shot from the Field-Piece, and, notwithstanding the Enemy were in such Force, in less than Half an Hour, they retook the Field Piece, and got complete Possession of the Hill, the Enemy flying on all Sides. In the Two Attacks there were Three Privates of the Royal Artillery wounded, Three Rank and File of the 46th Regiment killed, Nine Rank and File wounded; Captain Forster and Ensign Lee slightly wounded; Three Privates of the Militia killed; Captain Ross and Twelve Rank and File wounded. Of the Enemy, Twenty-three Frenchmen and Nineteen Charibs were found dead on the Hill, and Two Frenchmen and Two Charibs taken Prisoners; but it is believed their Loss in all was twice that Number, as many of them were seen at some Distance carrying off in Hammocks after the Attack.

Return of the Killed, Wounded and Missing in the Actions on the following Days, of the Troops under the Command of Brigadier-General Stewart, in the Island of St. Lucia.

14th of April, 1795.

9th, Flank Companies.—2 Rank and File killed; 6 Rank and File wounded.
61st.—3 Rank and File wounded.
68th, Flank Companies.—3 Rank and File wounded.

Royal Rangers.—1 Serjeant, 5 Rank and File, wounded.

15th of April.
