

Clerk. Apprentice or Servant, that, upon Payment of double the Rates and Duties upon the Monies, or such Part of the Monies, so omitted or neglected to be paid, and also so omitted to be inserted and written in such Indenture or Writing, on or before the 19th Day of December next, to the proper Officer, and tendering the same to be stamped at this Office, every such Indenture or other Writing shall be good and valid, and the Persons so offending be excused from any Penalty incurred by the Omission thereof; except those against whom any Prosecution shall be now depending.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Secretary.

THE Commissioners named and authorized in and by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling His Majesty to settle an Annuity on His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales during the joint Lives of His Majesty and of His said Royal Highness; for making Provision out of his Revenues for the Payment of any Debts that may be due from His Royal Highness; for preventing the Accumulation of Debts in future, and for regulating the Mode of Expenditure of the said Revenues," do hereby give Notice, that, pursuant to the Provision of the said Act, no Claim or Demand of any Creditor or Creditors of His Royal Highness is to be received by the said Commissioners after the 1st Day of September, 1795, unless it should be made appear to the said Commissioners that there is reasonable Cause to enlarge the Time for delivering in any such Claim or Account. And that no Security, by Way of Debenture, can be granted by the Commissioners to any Creditor or Creditors of His Royal Highness on Account of any Debt; nor can any Creditor be entitled to any Part or Share of the Funds established for the Payment of the said Debts, unless a Claim be made by such Creditor, and an Account, in Writing, of such Debt be delivered to the Commissioners on or before the 1st Day of September, 1795, and unless the Creditor shall submit to be examined touching his Debt, if the Commissioners shall see Cause to require him so to be. The Creditors of His Royal Highness are therefore required to send in an Account, of the Claims or Demands to Henry Hodgson, Esq; the Secretary to the said Commissioners, at his House in New Palace-Yard, Westminster, before the said 1st Day of September next.

Signed by Order of the Commissioners,
Henry Hodgson, Secretary.
