

St. James's, November 7.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George within your Castle of Windsor, beg Leave humbly to express to your Majesty our Concern and Indignation at the Outrage offered to your sacred Person in your late Progress to Parliament.

We trust your Majesty is convinced that no Subject of the British Empire, capable of appreciating your Majesty's Virtues, or calculating the Blessings derived to your People from your Government and Example, can be so blind to the Public Weal, so lost to his own Interest, as not to feel the utmost Abhorrence from the atrocious Transactions of that Day.

It would ill become us, Sirs, the Members of a Chapter, who enjoy the Opportunity of observing your Majesty's constant Discharge of every religious Duty, to neglect, for a Moment, to implore the Almighty for the Security of a Life so important to the Interests of Religion and Virtue; a Life, in which the private Happiness of your Majesty's Family, who have the justest Claim on our most dutiful and affectionate Attachment, is not more intimately involved, than the Welfare and Prosperity of a great and loyal People.

[ Presented by the Dean and Chapter. ]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Masters of your Royal College of Eton, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence with our most sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late outrageous Attack on your most sacred Person.

Conscious of the many Blessings we enjoy, in common with all our Fellow Subjects, under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and more particularly sensible of your gracious Attention to this Seminary of Learning, we cannot reflect without the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation on the nefarious Attempts of such evil-minded Persons; presuming however to hope, that the same indulgent Providence, which has hitherto preserved a Life so dear to all good Subjects and good Men, will, in its abundant Kindness, continue to secure this Blessing to us, so essential to the real Welfare and Prosperity of these Kingdoms.

Dated in the College of Eton this 3d Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Town-Clerk of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Town-Clerk of the Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, beg Leave to approach your Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our unsigned and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's most sacred Person, the Author and Abettor of which we devoutly hope will meet that Punishment so justly due to their Crime.

We fervently hope that your Majesty may enjoy a long, prosperous and happy Reign in the Affections of a free and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Guildhall within the same Borough, the 3d Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Rob. Blunt, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Reading.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Reading, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our warmest Congratulations on your late Escape from the violent and atrocious Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person by some of the most unprincipled of your factious and deluded Subjects.

Permit us at the same Time to express, in the strongest Terms, our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence of the Conduct of those Men who either joined in or were privy to this Insult; the Heinousness of which, (were it capable of Aggravation) was increased by its being committed at a Time when your Majesty was in the Exercise of that Part of your Royal Function, which it is the peculiar Happiness of Englishmen to witness and boast of, that of meeting the Two other Branches of the Legislature in Parliament.

That the Almighty King of Kings may continue to be your Defence against all your open and secret Enemies; that He may not only protect your Person, but direct and bless your Counsels, so that, during the Remainder of your Reign (which we ardently wish may be long and happy) we may have nothing to dread either from Foreign or Domestic Foes, is the fervent and earnest Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[ Presented by Francis Annesley and Richard Aldworth Neville, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Light Horse Volunteers of the Cities of London and Westminster, who have been permitted to unite to the Characters which we respectively hold in Civil Life, a Military One, in Defence of your Majesty and in Support of Order and good Government, cannot refrain from expressing our Grief and Indignation at the Violence recently offered to your sacred Person, and our Abhorrence of the Principles by which it was instigated. We most humbly congratulate your Majesty, and are thankful to Almighty God for the Preservation of a Life, on which the Safety and Happiness of these Realms, and, in the
