St. James's, November 14.

THE following Addressees have been presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of the City of London, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of London, deeply interested in the Preservation of social Order, feel it their Duty at this Time to approach the Throne to express their Concern, Indignation and Abhorrence at the Outrages which were committed on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament, by which your Majesty's Royal Person became exposed to Insult, and even to Danger, and the Freedom of Parliament was grossly violated.

Sire, the Affection which all true-hearted Britons entertain for your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, manifested by their faithful Attachment under every Vicissitude of public Affairs, has hitherto added Lustre to the national Character.

The Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of London upon a former Occasion in the most solemn Manner pledged themselves to the Support of the excellent Constitution of these Realms, and made a public Declaration that they would stand united in its Defence; their subsequent Conduct has testified to the World their firm Adherence to the Tenor of that Declaration. They beseech your Majesty that you will be pleased now to receive the Repetition of their Assurance that they will by their Example promote Obedience to the Laws; that they will uphold and maintain the Constitution of these Realms, established as it is in King, Lords and Commons; and that they will on every Occasion support and defend your Majesty's Royal Person and Authority.

It is their firm Reliance that in Sentiment and in Conduct the great Body of your Majesty's Subjects throughout the united Kingdoms will fully coincide; that such an Unanimity must secure the public Tranquillity, and will best enable your Majesty to effectuate your Majesty's declared Intentions of obtaining for your People the Blessings of such a Peace as will be consistent with the Glory, the Interests and the Safety of the Nation.

[Presented by Sir Richard Neave, Bart. Beeston Long, Esq; P. J. Thelluson, Esq; E. Forster, Esq; Alexander Aubert, and D. Giles, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants and Visitors of the City of Bath, impressed with the most lively Sense of the Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty on your late providential Escape from Assassination
