

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, and also of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the same City.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, and also the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the same City, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the late unexampled and flagiti-ous Outrage offered to your Majesty's sacred Person in your Royal and Constitutional Capacity, on your Passage to and from the Two Houses of Parliament, and to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from such an atrocious Attempt. Grateful for the manifold Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall be ever ready to use our utmost Exertions, and to risque ever; Thing that is dear to Englishmen, in protecting your Majesty from Insult and Outrage, and in enforcing and carrying into Effect the Laws of the Realm, being fully convinced in so doing the Security and Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects depend.

We are,
May it please your Majesty,
With most inviolable Attachment, Your Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and most obedient Subjects.

J. Williamson, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Lord Eardley and John Wilmot, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your Majesty's ancient and loyal City of Worcester, entreat Permission to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's most providential and truly fortunate Deliverance from the very imminent Danger wit. which your Majesty was threatened, and to which your Royal Person was exposed on the Day of the Opening of the present Meeting of Parliament,

On thus offering our Congratulations to your Majesty, we consider ourselves at the same Time as congratulating our Countrymen, conceiving that the all-wise Providence could not have bestowed a greater Blessing upon these Kingdoms than by frustrating the diabolical Plots and Machinations lately formed by a Set of Miscreants who have nothing to lose, and whose only Prospect of emerging from their primitive abject Obscurity seems to have been the Assassination of your Majesty, and the illustrious House of Brunswick, and the Murder, Rapine, Depreda-tion; and Plunder of the most worthy and valuable of your Majesty's Subjects, and the total Subversion of all Order and Government. We therefore most humbly hope and trust that due Measures will be taken for bringing to condign Punishment the Authors and Perpetrators of this horrid Outrage, for the Suppression of all seditious and unlawful As-semblies, and for the effectual Prevention of such Attempts in future.

We pray to God that it may please Him ever to avert the traitorous Designs of, and to protect your Majesty and the Constitution against, such daring, wicked, and unprincipled Men; and to grant that your Majesty may long live, and soon be enabled to conclude a Peace beneficial and honorable to your Majesty's Crown and your loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the said City, the 12th Day of November, 1795.

tative in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor and Corporation and other Inhabitants of the City of Wells.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Corporation and other Inhabitants of the City of Wells, observe, with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence, the outrageous Attack on your Royal Person, and most heartily congratulate your Majesty on your Escape from the Hands of such daring Ruffians. We feel it as a fresh Instance of that providential Care which has hitherto preserved your Majesty's valuable Life, and we trust will so continue to do for your Preservation, and the Happiness of your Subjects.

[Presented by Clement Tudway, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assistants of the City of Rochester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assistants of the City of Rochester, desire to unite our Congratulations, with those of our Countrymen in general, on your Majesty's happy Escape from the alarming Insults and nefarious Violence lately offered to your Royal Person.

While we declare our Readiness to exert ourselves in a vigorous Execution of the Laws, for the Discovery and Suppression of all seditious and traitorous Attempts against your Majesty's Person, or the Constitution of our Country, we trust in your Majesty's paternal Care to give a speedy Effect to the benevolent Intention declared by your Majesty, of using the Means necessary for the Restoration of Peace: An Event which, by lessening the present Distresses of your People, and preventing the Accumulation of farther Burdens on them, will deprive the Disaffected of their most powerful Means of spreading Discontent among your Subjects; over whose Hearts, as well as Persons, it is our earnest Prayer that your Reign may long and happily continue.

Given under our Common Seal this 11th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by Admiral Sir Richard King, Bart.]
