

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Blessings which this Nation enjoys through the Constitution of it's Government, and of the peculiar Happiness of the present Generation in living under your Majesty's paternal Guidance, beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of the Indignities offered lately to your Majesty in passing to exercise the Powers vested in our Sovereign for opening the present Session of Parliament, and of the treasonable Attacks upon your Majesty's sacred Person on that Occasion; and at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty, and the Nation at large, on your Majesty's Life being mercifully preserved to us. This every loyal Subject must feel, and be ready to profess in the warmest Terms. But permit us, Sire, to add further a Declaration of our Hope, that whoever were concerned in so great an Outrage will be discovered, and brought to such legal Punishment as shall be a Warning to others against being misled into a similar Crime; expressing our Satisfaction that your Majesty's Houses of Parliament are in their Wisdom framing such Ordinances for the Suppression of seditious Assemblies as we hope may repress that Spirit of Innovation which has gone forth of late, and threatens the Well-Being of the Community. And we assure your Majesty that we will individually, as well as in our corporate Capacity, inculcate the Wisdom as well as the Duty of Submission to Government for the Protection of a free People against the Lawless and Disobedient; and that we ourselves will be ready upon every Occasion to afford to your Majesty, and to the Constitution already established in these your Majesty's Dominions, whatever Support it may be in our Power to give.

Signed, in the Name and with the hearty Concurrence of each Member of the Chapter, by Francis Woolaston, Precentor.

November 16, 1795.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town or Borough of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impressed with Gratitude for the invaluable Blessings we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston upon Hull, cannot forbear to express our Grief and Indignation at the late daring and seditious Attack on your Majesty, in that Exercise of your Royal Function which forms so essential a Part of our happy Constitution.

Permit us, however, Sire, to offer our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your providential Escape from the Violence and Outrage of a misguided Populace.

Anxious as we must feel for your Majesty's Safety, on which the Welfare of your People so much depends, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will ever use our most strenuous Endeavours to support and defend your Person and Government; and that it is our most fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may long continue to be the Object of the Divine Favour and Protection.

Given under our Common Seal, the 10th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

S. Standidge, Mayor.

[Presented by Samuel Standidge, Esq; Mayor, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, High Steward, and the Earl of Burford and Samuel Thoroton, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity Hoode of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Wardens, Elder Brethren and Assistants of the Trinity Hoode of Kingston upon Hull, ever amongst the most forward of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects in testifying their Zeal and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, beg Leave most respectfully to approach the Throne with Hearts truly affected with the daring Insult and Outrage that has been very lately committed against your Majesty.

And whilst this Corporation expresses their just Indignation at such atrocious and wicked Attempts, they presume to assure your Majesty that their utmost Efforts shall at all Times be employed in repelling, as far as in their Power, that Disposition towards Riot and Disorder that has of late shewn itself, and in cultivating and confirming in the Minds of others Principles of Respect and Veneration for the King, and present happy Constitution.

May the same Almighty Providence, that hath at this Time shielded your Majesty, long continue to protect and guard your Royal Person against every secret Conspiracy, as well as open Violence, that the invaluable Blessings of your Majesty's mild and paternal Government may be transmitted down to the latest Ages.

Given under our Common Seal the 9th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Samuel Standidge, John Harnes, Wardens.

[Presented by Samuel Standidge, Esq; Mayor, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, High Steward, and the Earl of Burford and Samuel Thoroton, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the Town of Kingston upon Hull.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns and Neighbourhood of Manchester and Salford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our most lively Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring and atrocious Outrage offered to your Majesty's Royal Person. An Attempt in it's own Nature so diabolical, and by your Majesty so undeserved, could proceed only from Hearts dead to the Feelings of Humanity and Gratitude: And we lament that, in the Number of British Subjects, there should one be found so forgetful of his Country and his King, as wantonly to put to Hazard the Tranquillity and Safety of them both.

We
