

the venerable and, we trust, lasting Fabric of British Liberty.

We have directed our Major-Commandant to sign this Address in Name of the Corps, assembled at Dumfries, this 5th of November, 1795.

A. S. De Peyster, Major-Commandant.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Queensberry.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Dumfries, beg Leave in this Manner to approach your Royal Presence, to express our deep Concern at the traitorous and wicked Attempt which hath been lately made upon your Majesty's sacred Person and Life.

We regard, with the utmost Horror, the Principles which prompted so base a Design; and we lament that any Set of Men should be so profligate as to aim, by Means so atrocious, at the Destruction of the Laws, the Peace, and Constitution of the Kingdom.

Most sincerely we congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from a Danger so imminent; and we earnestly pray that your Majesty may be long preserved to bless and reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy People.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Permission to assure your Majesty of our faithful Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government; and of the general Respect which your Subjects in this Town entertain for the good Order and Constitution of the Country.

We have directed our Chief Magistrate, in Presence of the Council assembled, to sign this Address in our Name, at Dumfries, the 6th Day of November, 1795.

David Stair,

Provost and Chief Magistrate of Dumfries.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Queensberry.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverary.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to express our just Indignation at the late most daring Insult offered to your Majesty's sacred Person.

While we reflect with Horror upon so atrocious and violent an Outrage, we are thankful to that over-ruling Providence which prevented its being attended with more unhappy Consequences.

We humbly beg Leave to express our earnest Wish that those concerned in a Crime of so heinous a Nature may speedily be discovered and meet with that Punishment which their Wickedness deserves: And we trust that a Life, so valuable to all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, may be long preserved for the Happiness of your Majesty's Family and Kingdoms.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council, by

Duncan Campbell, Provost.

Inverary, November 10, 1795.

[Transmitted by John Campbell, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Burgh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Conveener, Deacons and Masters of the Incorporated Trades of Aberdeen, in Court assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, have heard, with deep Regret, of the Insults lately offered to your Majesty, when passing to and from your Parliament, by a misguided Populace.

While we express our Detestation and Abhorrence of a Conduct so opposite to that which a gracious and affectionate Sovereign might naturally expect from his People, we are anxious upon this Occasion humbly to assure your Majesty of our most grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government.

We are, happily, Strangers to every Appearance of Disaffection to your Royal Person, or Want of Respect to the Laws and Constitution of our Country; and it shall be our constant Endeavour to cherish, among those with whom we are connected, every dutiful and loyal Sentiment.

We most sincerely pray, that your Majesty may long be preserved, an eminent Example of every Virtue, the Father and Guardian of your People.

Signed, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Aberdeen, the 12th Day of November, in the Year 1795.

[Transmitted by James Clark, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Paisley, met this Day in Presbytery.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Paisley, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most lively Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection.

Sensible of the many Blessings which the People of this Kingdom have long enjoyed, and which they hope still to enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we think it our Duty to embrace this early Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on your Escape from the Danger to which your Majesty was lately exposed by the daring Attempts of some lawless and profligate Men, when in the public Discharge of the important Duties of your Royal Office.

We at the same Time feel it our Duty to express our deep Abhorrence at such an Outrage against your Majesty's Person, convinced that on the Maintenance of your Authority and the Safety of your Person depend, under the Providence of God, the internal Peace of these Realms, and the Preservation of our Civil and Religious Privileges.

We are happy to assure your Majesty that, so far as we have observed, the same Sentiments prevail among the great Body of the People under our Charge in this populous County of Renfrew; and these Sentiments, as Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, we shall think it our Duty, both by Precept and Example, assiduously to cultivate.

That this Country may be soon blessed with a safe, honorable and permanent Peace, and that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a free, happy
