may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Paisley.

Signed in our Name and at our Appointment by Stevenson Mac Gill, Moderator.

Paisley, November 11, 1795.

[Transmitted by John Shaw Stewart, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County of Kincardine

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County of Kincardine, affembled in a General Meeting, senfible of the Bleffings which we enjoy under your Majedy's just and mild Government, beg Leave, with the utmost Veneration and Respect, to express to your Gracious Majesty the Horror and Indignation which we feel at the daring and outrageous Affault which was made against your Majesty's sacred Person, and at the very Time when your Majesty was performing the Functions of the Crown, and fulfilling your Part of our admirable Confliction. With the most humble Sentiments of Gratitude to the Almighty and all-wife Disposer of Events, we congratulate your Majesty on your Escape from a traiterous Attack, which tended at once to deprive us of our beloved Sovereign, and to subvert our glorious and invaluable Constitution. We also beg Leave faithfully to express our most earnest Wishes, that every Exertion may be used to bring those daring Offenders to Justice, and that speedy and effectual Measures may be devised to prevent such horrible and atrocious Attempts for the future. And we do assure your Majesty of our firm and determined Refolution, not only to discourage, prevent, and sup-press, by every Mean in our Power, all seditious and unlawful Publications, Practices, or Assemblies, and to discountenance and discover the Authors thereof, but also, when called upon, to come forward with Zeal and Unanimity in the Defence of your Majesty's Royal Person, and in the Support of your Government.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Stonehaven, the 14th Day of November, 1795 Years.

Barclay Allardice, Preces. [Transmitted by Barclay Allardice, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Newport, beg Permission to offer our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's late happy Escape from the violent and abominable Attempt made on your Majesty's facred Person.

It is with great Satisfaction we understand that your Majesty's faithful Parliament have already taken into their Consideration the Means of more effectually happy and united People, is the earnest Prayer of, I guarding your facred Person from the future horrid Attacks of those detested and unprincipled Wretches, who, deluded by treasonable and seditious Societies, and under specious Pretence of Reform, would destroy the Monarchy, and subvert that free and invaluable Constitution on which the Happiness of your Majetty's People, and the good Order of Society fo esentially depend.

That the Almighty Power may continue to defend your Majetty from every open and secret Enemy, during the Remainder of your Reign, (which we ardently with may be long and happy) is the fervent and fincere Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the 12th Day of November, 1795.

[Transmitted by Edward Rushworth, Esq., Recorder of Newport.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Volunteers of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of Aberdeen, affociated in Defence of our happy Constitution, have heard, with no less Astonishment than Concern, of the late daring Infult offered to your Majesty by a misguided Populace.

We beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the Preservation of a Life in which the Sasety and Happiness of these Kingdoms are so deeply interested; and at the same Time to assure your Majesty that we will on every Occasion be ready to come forward in Support of the Constitution, the Protection of your Majesty's facred Person, and the Prefervation of good Order.

Signed by Order of the Corps at Aberdeen the .14th Day of November, in the Year 1795, by Alexander Moir, Major-Commandant. [Transmitted by Major Moir.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

NE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Campbellton, for ourselves and in Behalf of the Community thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most unseigned Sentiments of Loyalty and Congratulation, for your Majesty's providential Escape from the late unprecedented, horrid and wicked Designs of evil-minded and deluded Men.

We fincerely lament that in this Kingdom one Individual should exist, so depraved in Principle and fo lost to every Sense of Duty and Gratitude for the Bleffings enjoyed under your Majesty's mild Government and the Protection of the British Constitution, as to conceive in Imagination, far less to attempt, the Commission of any Insult, Injury or Violence to your gracious Person; and we feel Comfort in the Conviction that, on this Occasion in particular, your Majesty has been, and we pray may always continue, under the Favour and Protection of the King of Kings.

Abhorring the Principles and Practices of Mifcreants, that would plunge this Kingdom into Diffress and Confusion, we trust those Laws that have hitherto afforded them Security, will, on this Occasion, be-applied