

applied to bring down upon them those Punishments which their Crimes so justly deserve.

And as we are firmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Government, and justly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under them, we declare our Resolution to defend the one and to support the other with our Lives and Fortunes, and trust that your Majesty may long reign in Peace and Security over a free and happy People.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Town Council, by

*Dur. Campbell, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Magistrates of the North Riding of the County of York, assembled this 16th Day of November, 1795, at Northallerton, in the said Riding, rejoice and congratulate your Majesty upon being so providentially protected from the dreadful Consequences of the violent Outrage attempted to be committed on your Royal Person in your Passage to meet your Parliament.

It is our most ardent Wish and Desire that your Majesty may long continue to reign over your loyal Subjects, and that they may enjoy under your Majesty every Advantage of Order and good Government.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fauconberg, Lord Lieutenant.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express our Horror and Indignation at the wicked Attempt lately intended against your Majesty's Person, in going to and from your Parliament, by some of your deluded Subjects; declaring our utter Detestation of such unwarrantable and flagitious Conduct; and being fully persuaded that neither our Liberties, nor our Property, nor any Thing that we possess or enjoy, can be said to be safe, if your Majesty, who is the Guardian and Protector of our Laws, is in Danger.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to congratulate your Majesty on the providential Escape you have had from the unexampled and traitorous Attacks of your Enemies, which, if not immediately checked, must prove dangerous to our glorious and happy Constitution; and we are much concerned to find, that there should exist a Combination of Men so daringly wicked as to attempt the Life of your sacred Person, under whose mild and paternal Government we enjoy every Blessing and Happiness.

We think it our Duty, therefore, as it is our inclination, to express our utmost Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and we sincerely wish and hope, that your future Reign may be long, happy and glorious.

Sealed with our Corporation Seal this 16th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Transmitted by Sir Edward Dering, Bart.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Corps of Towyn Volunteers (Merionethshire Yeomanry) humbly presume to express our warmest Professions of Attachment to the first and best Monarch of the Age, who, to the Honour of the Nation, now graces it's Throne.

With the deepest Concern, we read of the late daring and treasonable Insult towards your Majesty's most sacred Person, and have not with Indifference observed, for some Time, a turbulent Inclination among the factious and disappointed Part of your Majesty's Subjects to overturn the constitutional Government and Religion of your Majesty's Dominions.

It therefore behoves us solemnly to assure your Majesty, that being our Duty, it is equally our Resolution, to sacrifice every Consideration in Defence of your Majesty, your Family, and the present happy Constitution of our Country.

By general Desire of the Corps,
Edward Corbet, Captain-Commandant.

Towyn, Merionethshire, Nov. 15, 1795.

St. James's, November 21.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

THE Presbytery of Dundee beg Leave to approach your Throne with loyal and dutiful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. Equally astonished and concerned at the late daring Outrages offered to your Majesty in passing to and from the Parliament, we feel it incumbent upon us to take this earliest Opportunity of expressing our utmost Abhorrence at those Proceedings, and our Gratitude to Almighty God for his distinguished Goodness on that Occasion to these Lands, in the safe and gracious Protection of your Majesty from the Danger which then threatened.

Convinced as we are of the mild and benevolent Spirit which has invariably marked your Majesty's Reign, and that none of your august Predecessors who filled the Throne of these Kingdoms was ever more justly entitled to the distinguished Appellation of Father of his People, we cannot reflect but with the highest Emotions of Surprise and Regret that there should be any amongst your Majesty's Subjects so insensible to the Calls of national Duty and Gratitude, and so lost to those Principles which should govern Men and Britons, as to conspire maliciously to offer Insult or Violence to your Royal Person, which every Consideration, Divine and Human, teaches to revere. Under these Impressions, and from a Sense of the deep Injury which both the Laws and
