

St. James's, December 1.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this critical Juncture, and to join the general Voice of your loving Subjects in expressing our sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late most daring and flagitious Attack on your Royal Person, and also to testify our Indignation and Abhorrence against the seditious Authors and Abettors of this horrid Outrage.

We humbly hope, that by a vigorous Exertion of legal Authority, the Guilty may be brought to speedy and condign Punishment, in order to prevent a Repetition of such atrocious Attacks, which strike at once again the King and Constitution.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under the mild and auspicious Reign of your Majesty, we feel the warmest Attachments of Duty and Loyalty to your sacred Person, as well as the firmest Determination to support and maintain our excellent Constitution, as by Law established.

Your Majesty having ever shewn yourself the steady Guardian of our Rights, civil and religious, our most earnest Prayers are offered to the Supreme Being, that your Majesty's sacred and valuable Life may be long preserved for the Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

Signed, at the unanimous Request of the Meeting,
MANCHESTER, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Liberties of the Tower of London, in Sessions assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the said Liberties, deeply impressed with great Concern to find that the Minds of any of your Majesty's Subjects should be so perverted from their Duty, and so forgetful of those Virtues which adorn your Royal Person, to become so desperately infatuated as to commit the late atrocious Outrage against your Majesty's sacred Person, in going to and returning from your Parliament.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Escape from an Attempt so criminally malignant, by which the invaluable Constitution of this Country was endangered; and to assure your Majesty that as Magistrates we will be vigilant and active to curb and suppress those dangerous and seditious Spirits, whose sole Wish is to poison the Minds of those who have a proper Sense of the Blessings of your Government, and hope to prosper in their nefarious Designs of introducing Anarchy and Confusion.

And being fully convinced that those Designs are as manifest as they are wicked, we, at this momentous Crisis, firmly rely upon the Wisdom of Parliament for enacting such Laws as will tend to secure your Majesty's Person and Government, and preserve the Peace, Happiness, and Safety of the Country.

Signed, by Order of the Court,
Dan. Williams, Chairman.

[Presented by Daniel Williams, Esq; Chairman of the Sessions for the said Liberties.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dover, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dover, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your late providential Escape from the daring Attack on your Majesty's Person, and to express our Horror and Abhorrence against the Authors and Instigators of so violent an Outrage.

Experiencing the Blessings which our happy Constitution afford, and impressed with a deep Sense of your Majesty's numerous and exalted Virtues, and of that paternal Regard which your Majesty has unceasingly shewn for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, we cannot reflect on this atrocious Attempt without being filled with Sorrow and Astonishment that Persons could be found in this Kingdom so depraved and lost to every Sentiment of Religion and Allegiance as to be capable of committing it.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to the present Form of Government; and it is our fervent Prayer, that the Divine Providence may shield your Majesty from the Attacks of secret and open Enemies, and long preserve your Majesty's Life, to reign over a free, loyal, and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal the 16th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Thomas Mantell, Esq; accompanied by John Trevanion and Charles Small Pybus, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town and Port.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corps of Volunteers of the Borough of Leeds,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Volunteers of the Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the malicious Attempts of a Band of Miscreants, and to express our Horror and Detestation of the Principles which could excite or encourage so wicked and desperate an Attack.

Enrolled under your Majesty's Sanction and Commission, for the Defence of our happy Constitution and it's Laws, we consider ourselves pledged to watch, with a jealous Eye, every Attempt to subvert them; and we cannot but view the late atrocious Insult offered to your sacred Person, when going pro-
