

cessedly to consult with the other Branches of the Legislature for the publick Welfare, as a Blow aimed at the Constitution itself, which we have sworn to defend.

Permit us therefore, Sire, under the Impulse of an ardent Affection for your Royal Virtues, a respectful Gratitude for your gracious Government, and a zealous Attachment to our rational and legal Freedom, known only unto British Subjects, thus to declare our firm and united Resolution to support (to the utmost of our Abilities) your Majesty's Person, Crown and Dignity, to assist the Civil Power in the Execution of their Offices derived from your Authority, and to protect our Fellow Subjects in the peaceable Enjoyment of their Properties and dearest Rights from the Machinations of the Seditious, the Rapine of the Lawless, and the Outrage of the Licentious.

Signed at the unanimous Request of the Corps.
Thomas Lloyd, Lieutenant-Colonel Commandant.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Helston, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and humbly to offer warmest and most sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the horrid and atrocious Attack made upon your sacred Person by wicked and seditious Men, whose Designs have been most happily frustrated by that Almighty Power, which we trust will continue to be your Majesty's Defence and Support against all your open and secret Enemies.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, at the Guildhall, the 14th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by Charles Abbot, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Alderman, Burgesses and Inhabitants in general of your Majesty's ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of your ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham, beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Escape from the traitorous and villainous Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person, a Circumstance we look to with the greatest Abhorrence and Indignation.

Permit us to assure you, most gracious Sire, of our most faithful Attachment to your Royal Person, that we shall be ever attentive, with our utmost Vigilance and Exertions; to preserve and defend it, and to support and maintain inviolate that noble Edifice our Constitution, reared by the Wisdom and Perseverance of our Ancestors, and now the Pride and Boast of every true Englishman; and any Attempt that may be made to subvert or overturn it we are determined to discountenance and resist to the last Extremity.

[Presented by R. A. Neville, Esq; High Steward of the said Corporation.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Falmouth, impressed with a due Sense of the Blessings we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, enjoy from the just and admirable Constitution and Laws of this Kingdom, and from your Majesty's mild and indulgent Administration thereof, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to express our Abhorrence of the recent wicked Attempt made upon the Person of your Majesty, with a Design to terminate, by one dreadful Act of the blackest Turpitude, not only your Majesty's most valuable Life, ever dear to all true Englishmen, but that Constitution and those Laws, the Result of the Wisdom of Ages, by which we and our Forefathers have been so long happily governed, and which have made us the Envy and the Admiration of the World.

We trace this infamous Attempt to the Industry with which Doctrines of the most seditious Nature are publicly disseminated, calculated to dissatisfy the Minds of the People with the Laws of their Country, and to stir them up to Acts of Treason and Rebellion. We therefore trust that effectual Measures will be speedily taken for enforcing the existing Laws against Practices of such a dreadful Tendency, and in case they shall not be sufficient, that Laws may be enacted for the Prevention of this public Evil, and for the Protection of your Majesty's Royal Person.

Permit us, Sire, to renew our most solemn Assurances of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, and our fixed Determination to support, by every Means in our Power, your Majesty's Person and the glorious Constitution of this Kingdom; as by Law established. And we earnestly hope, from the Union of all good Men in this Sentiment, that the Anarchy, Confusion and Destruction of Property (so evidently the Wish of the seditious Persons who have excited this Attempt) will, by the Blessing of God, be frustrated.

We implore the Divine Providence to protect your Majesty against all Attempts of your Enemies, and to preserve you for many Years to reign over us, and to remain a Pattern of Virtue and Goodness both in public and private Life.

By Order of the Meeting,

James Tippetts, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by Sir John Wodehouse, Bart. Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Lancaster, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Sentiments of the sincerest Respect and Attachment.
