

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Volunteers and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Ripon, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the malignant and wicked Attack made upon your sacred Person on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament, and to express our Indignation and Abhorrence against the Authors of so daring an Outrage.

And we beg Leave most humbly to suggest our Hopes that your Majesty, with the Advice of your Parliament, will adopt such Measures as may most effectually preserve your sacred Person from future Insults, and may be adequate to restrain the extreme and dangerous Licentiousness of the Ill-disposed.

That the Almighty may continue to your Majesty his protecting Care, during a long and happy Reign, is the sincere and ardent Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Ripon, Nov. 24, 1795.

[Presented by William Lawrence, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guildstewards and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Calne, in the County of Wilts.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guildstewards and Burgesses of the Borough of Calne, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our unfeigned and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty providential and happy Escape from the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's most sacred Person, the Authors and Abettors of which we devoutly hope will meet that Punishment so justly due to their Crime.

We fervently hope that your Majesty may enjoy a long, prosperous and happy Reign in the Affections of a free and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 30th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Joseph Jekyll, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Parishioners of the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Parishioners of St. Martin in the Fields, in the City and Liberty of Westminster, humbly approach the Throne to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the providential Escape your Majesty has recently experienced, and to express our utmost Abhorrence of the daring Insult, by which your Majesty's Life has been endangered, and the Laws established for the Safety of your sacred Person grossly violated.

The Consideration that the atrocious Attempt, which Divine Providence hath graciously frustrated, happened in the Metropolis where we reside, and was committed whilst your Majesty was in the actual Discharge of one of the many important Duties of your high Office, impels us more especially to renew the Profession of our firm and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to express our Determination to guard and protect these invaluable Pledges of our Happiness against every Attempt of Sedition and Violence, and renders us particularly anxious to discriminate the Clamours and desperate Acts of a few misguided Miscreants from the general Sentiments and Conduct of your affectionate and faithful Subjects.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are fully sensible of the superior Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Administration of the Laws of our wise, free, and approved Constitution, that we were never more deeply impressed with a Conviction of the Importance of your Majesty's Life, nor ever more grateful for it's Preservation.

It is our fervent Wish and Prayer that your Majesty may long continue to reign on the Throne of these Kingdoms and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful and united People.

John Drummond, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City and Liberties of Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the City and Liberties of Westminster, beg Leave to express the deep Concern, Indignation and Abhorrence with which we were filled by the late daring and criminal Outrages offered to your Royal Person in your Passage to and from Parliament, and to lay before your Majesty the earnest Wishes of us your faithful Subjects that the Authors of Crimes so atrocious may be discovered, and receive such Punishment as the Laws have wisely decreed.

We further humbly beg Leave to add our sincere Prayers, that it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events ever to protect your Royal Person in all Safety, and that your Majesty may long reign over a People unanimous in every Effort for the Happiness and Glory of their beloved Sovereign, and for the Maintenance and Support of the ancient and free Constitution of these Realms.

By Order of the Meeting,

Charles James Fox, Chairman.
