

any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the said 10th Day of this instant December, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ, which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

St. James's, December 12.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Gloucester, sensibly alarmed by the late outrageous Attempt made on your Majesty's Royal Person, offer our unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Interposition manifested for the Safety of your Majesty, and the Welfare of the Kingdom at large.

We are grieved that any of our Fellow Subjects should be so lost to every Sense of those national Blessings we enjoy unrivalled, as to perpetrate a Deed, which not only menaced the Life of our justly beloved Sovereign, which not only menaced the Life of our justly beloved Sovereign, but the fatal Subversion of our happy Constitution; nor can we better express our Abhorrence of those Principles which could instigate to such an Attempt; than by declaring our Resolution to cooperate in every Measure likely to bring to Punishment the daring Offenders, and to testify our Attachment to your Majesty, and our Obedience to the legally constituted Authorities of this Country.

Signed, at the unanimous Request of a County Meeting.

Samuel Edwards, Sheriff.

[Presented by Earl Bathurst, accompanied by the Marquis of Worcester, the Lord Bishop of Durham, Right Hon. Lord Ducie, — Hicks, Esq; Rev. Mr. Tatler, and George Talbot, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Anglesey, assembled in the Shire Hall, at Beaumaris, in the said County, on Wednesday the 2d Day of December, 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects of the County of Anglesey, impressed with the deepest Sentiments of Respect and Affection to your Majesty, have heard with the utmost Abhorrence of the daring and atrocious Attempt made on your sacred Person, on your Majesty's Way to the House of Parliament. Sensible as we are of the invaluable Blessings we derive from the happy Form of Constitution, as in this Country by Law established, we cannot think but with Horror and Detestation of an Act, by which it's very Existence would have been
