Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Citizens of your Majesty's antient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty with Congratulations for the providential Deliverance of your Royal Person from the imminent Danger to which it has been lately exposed.

When we reflect upon the Circumstances of this Outrage, that it was made at a Time when your Majesty was proceeding to the Exercise of one of the most sacred Functions of the Constitution, that of meeting the great Council of the Nation in Parliament assembled, our Minds are filled with Sentiments of Horror and Astonishment, and we want Words to express our Detestation of so nefarious an Attempt.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that, sensible of the many and salutary Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, we will earnestly embrace every Opportunity to promote the impartial Administration of Justice and dutiful Submission to the Laws, which alone can give Security to the Liberties, and increase the Prosperity of the Community.

Given under our Common Seal, at the City of Hereford, the 23d of November, 1795.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Scudamore, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late daring and treasonable Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person.

We beg Leave to express our utter Abhorrence, not only of this desperate Outrage offered to your Majesty, but also of the dangerous Principles which have of late been so industriously propagated, and which we cannot but consider as connected with this alarming and detestable Attempt. We are thankful to God's Providence for his gracious Interposition in Behalf of your Majesty and your Dominions; and we rest in firm Confidence, that the Wisdom of the Legislature will adopt Measures which shall effectually prevent such criminal Projects in future.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, under the Impulse of ardent Affection for your Majesty's Person, of lively Gratitude for your mild and paternal Administration, and of zealous Attachment to the admirable Constitution of our Country, to declare that we will, each in his respective Station, and to the utmost of his Power, promote Veneration towards your Majesty and Obedience to the Laws; fully sensible that by these Means only we can secure to ourselves the Continuance of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy.
